Youth is always too serious, and just now it's too serious about frivolity.

G.K. Chesterton

For a life of sensation rather than of thoughts.

In the time of your life - live!

William Saroyan

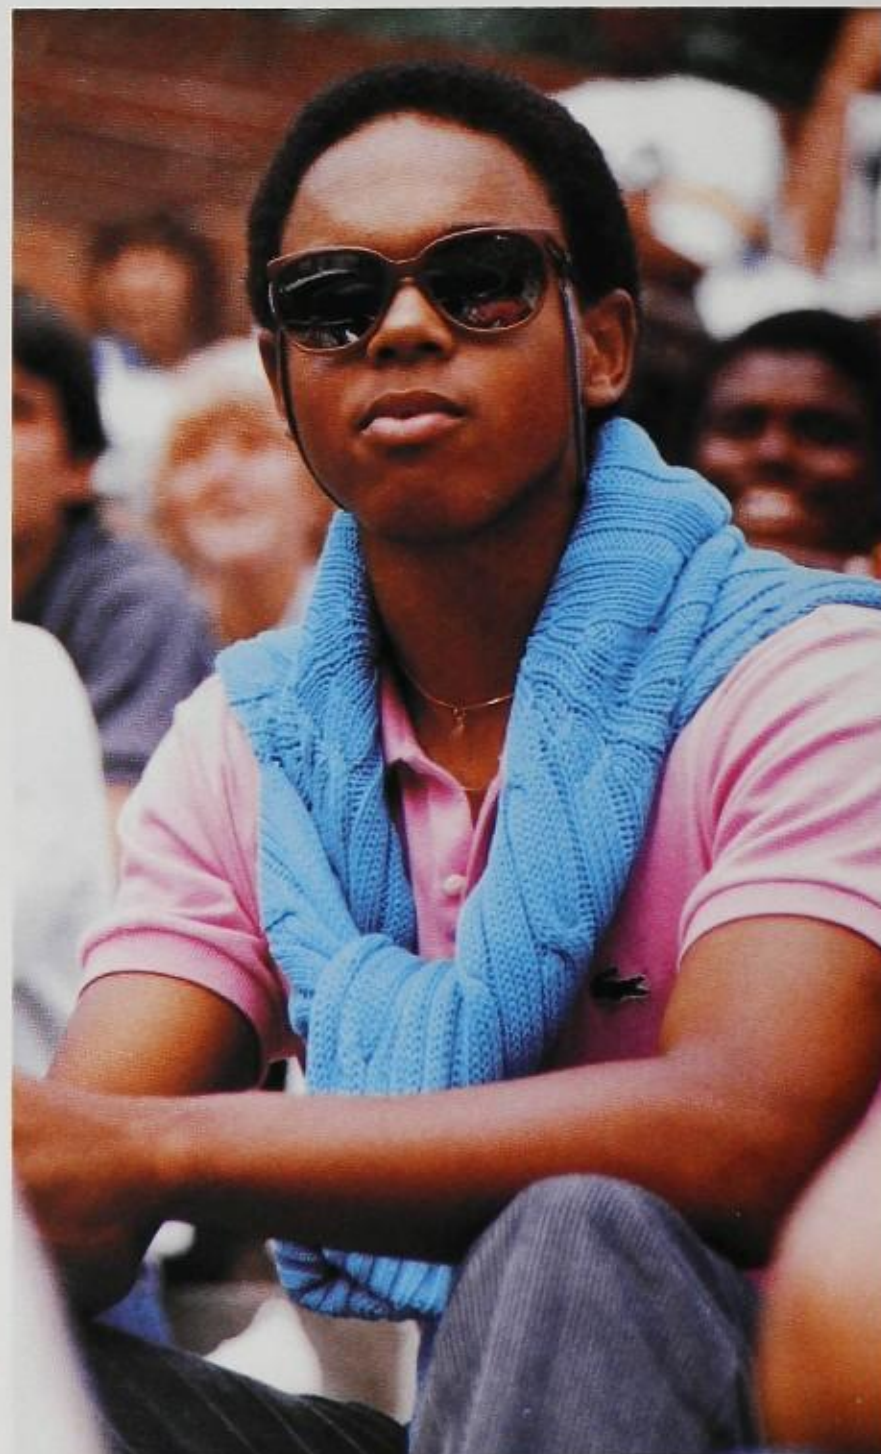

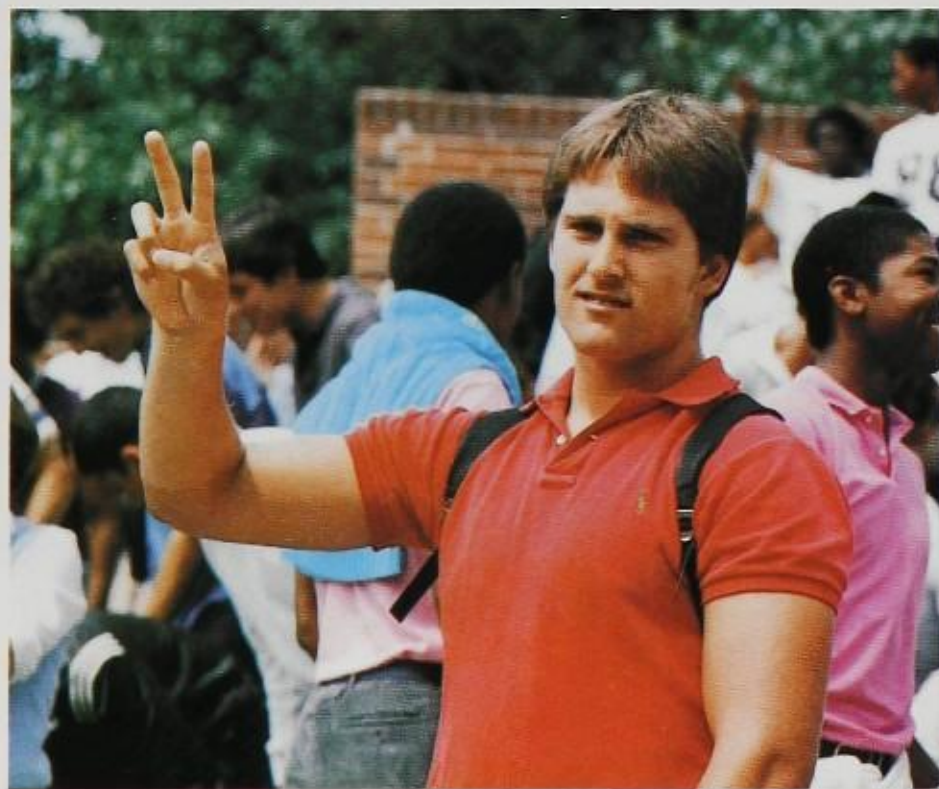

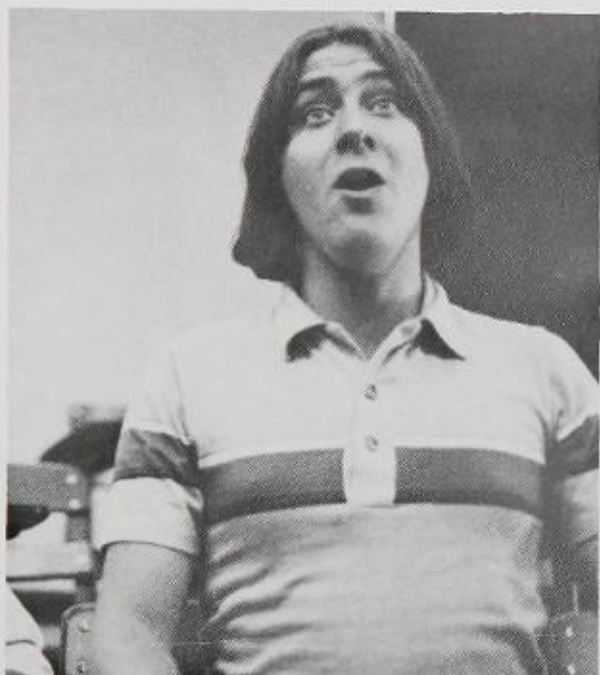

... Life is a permanent possibility of sensation.

-Stevenson

I never know whether to pity or congratulate a man on coming to his senses.

-Thackeray

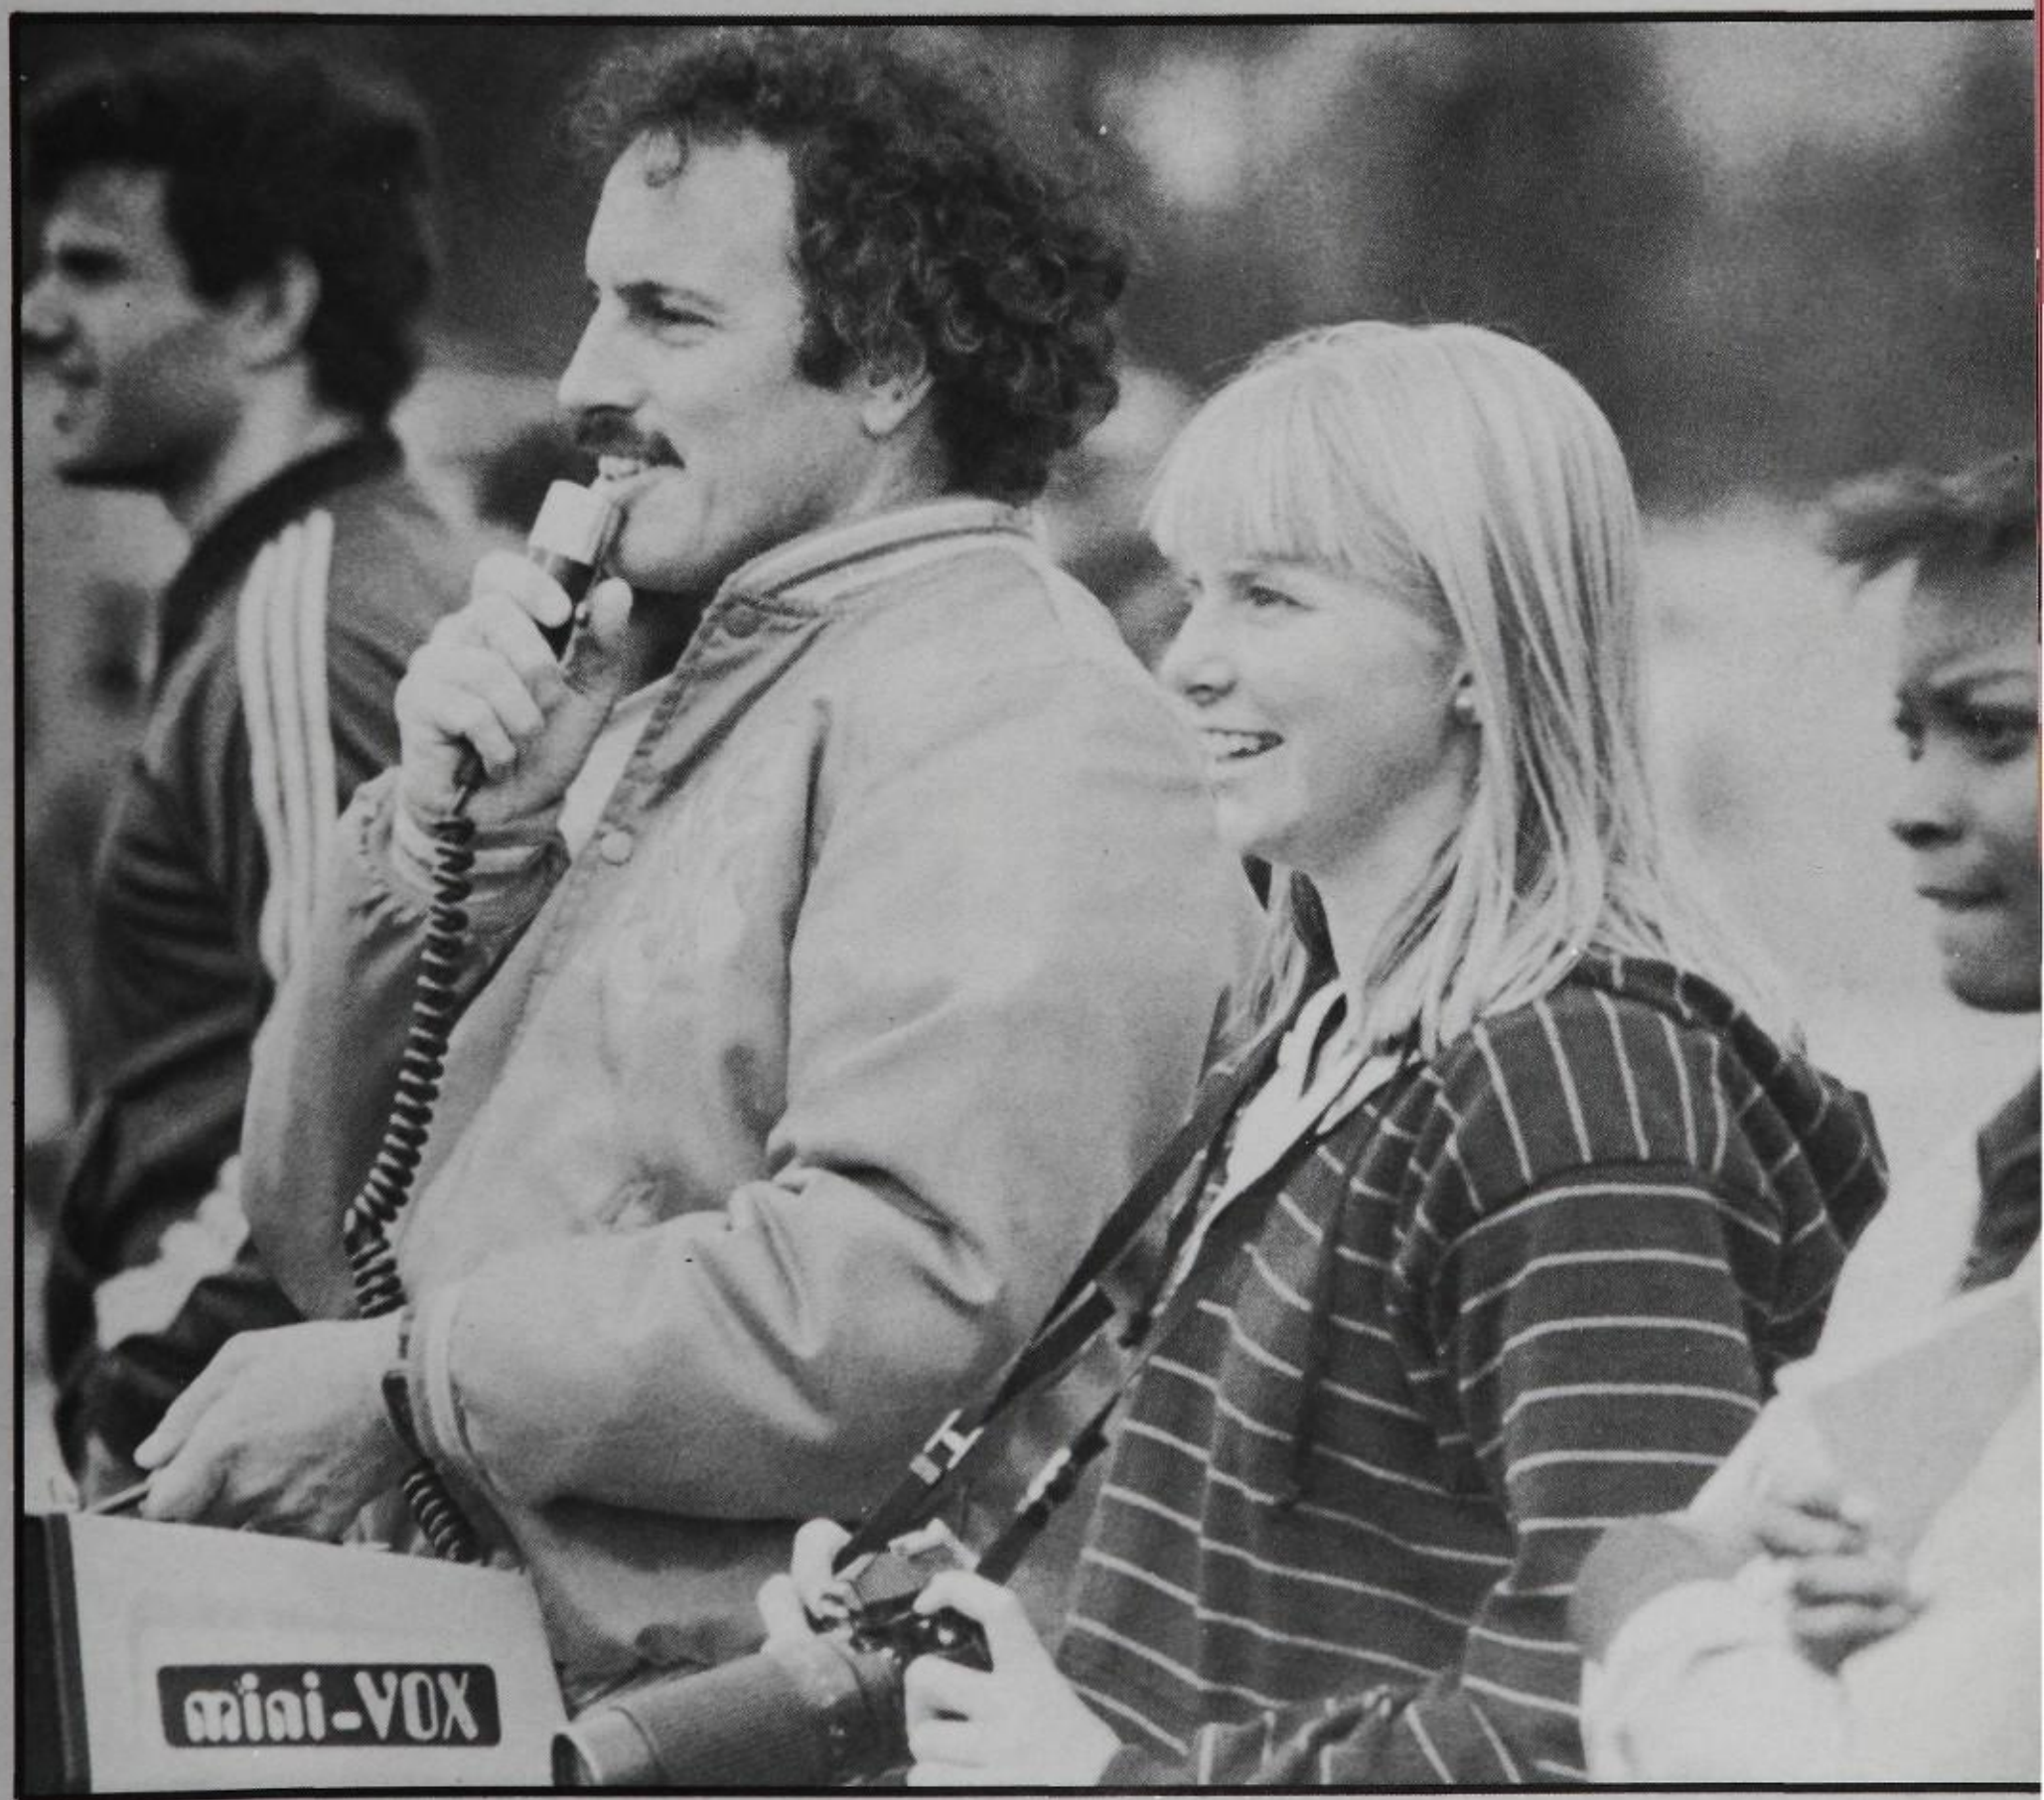

-Nietzsche

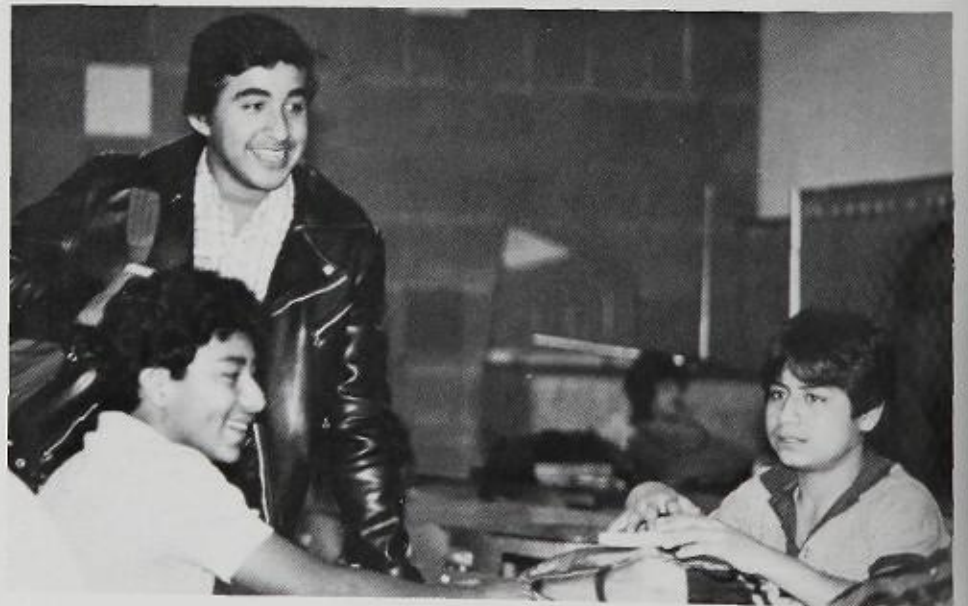

In every real man, a child is hidden that wants to play.

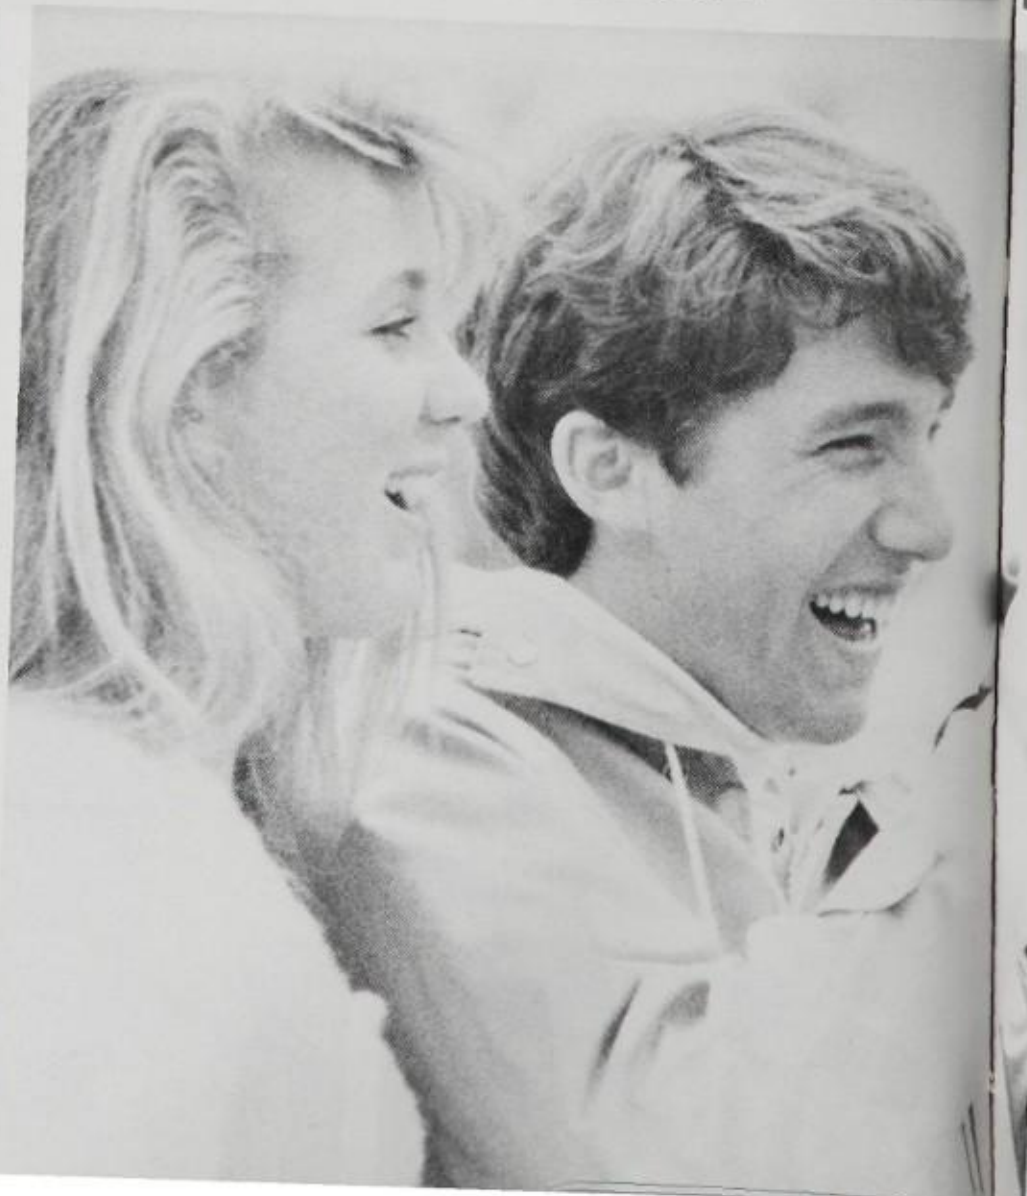

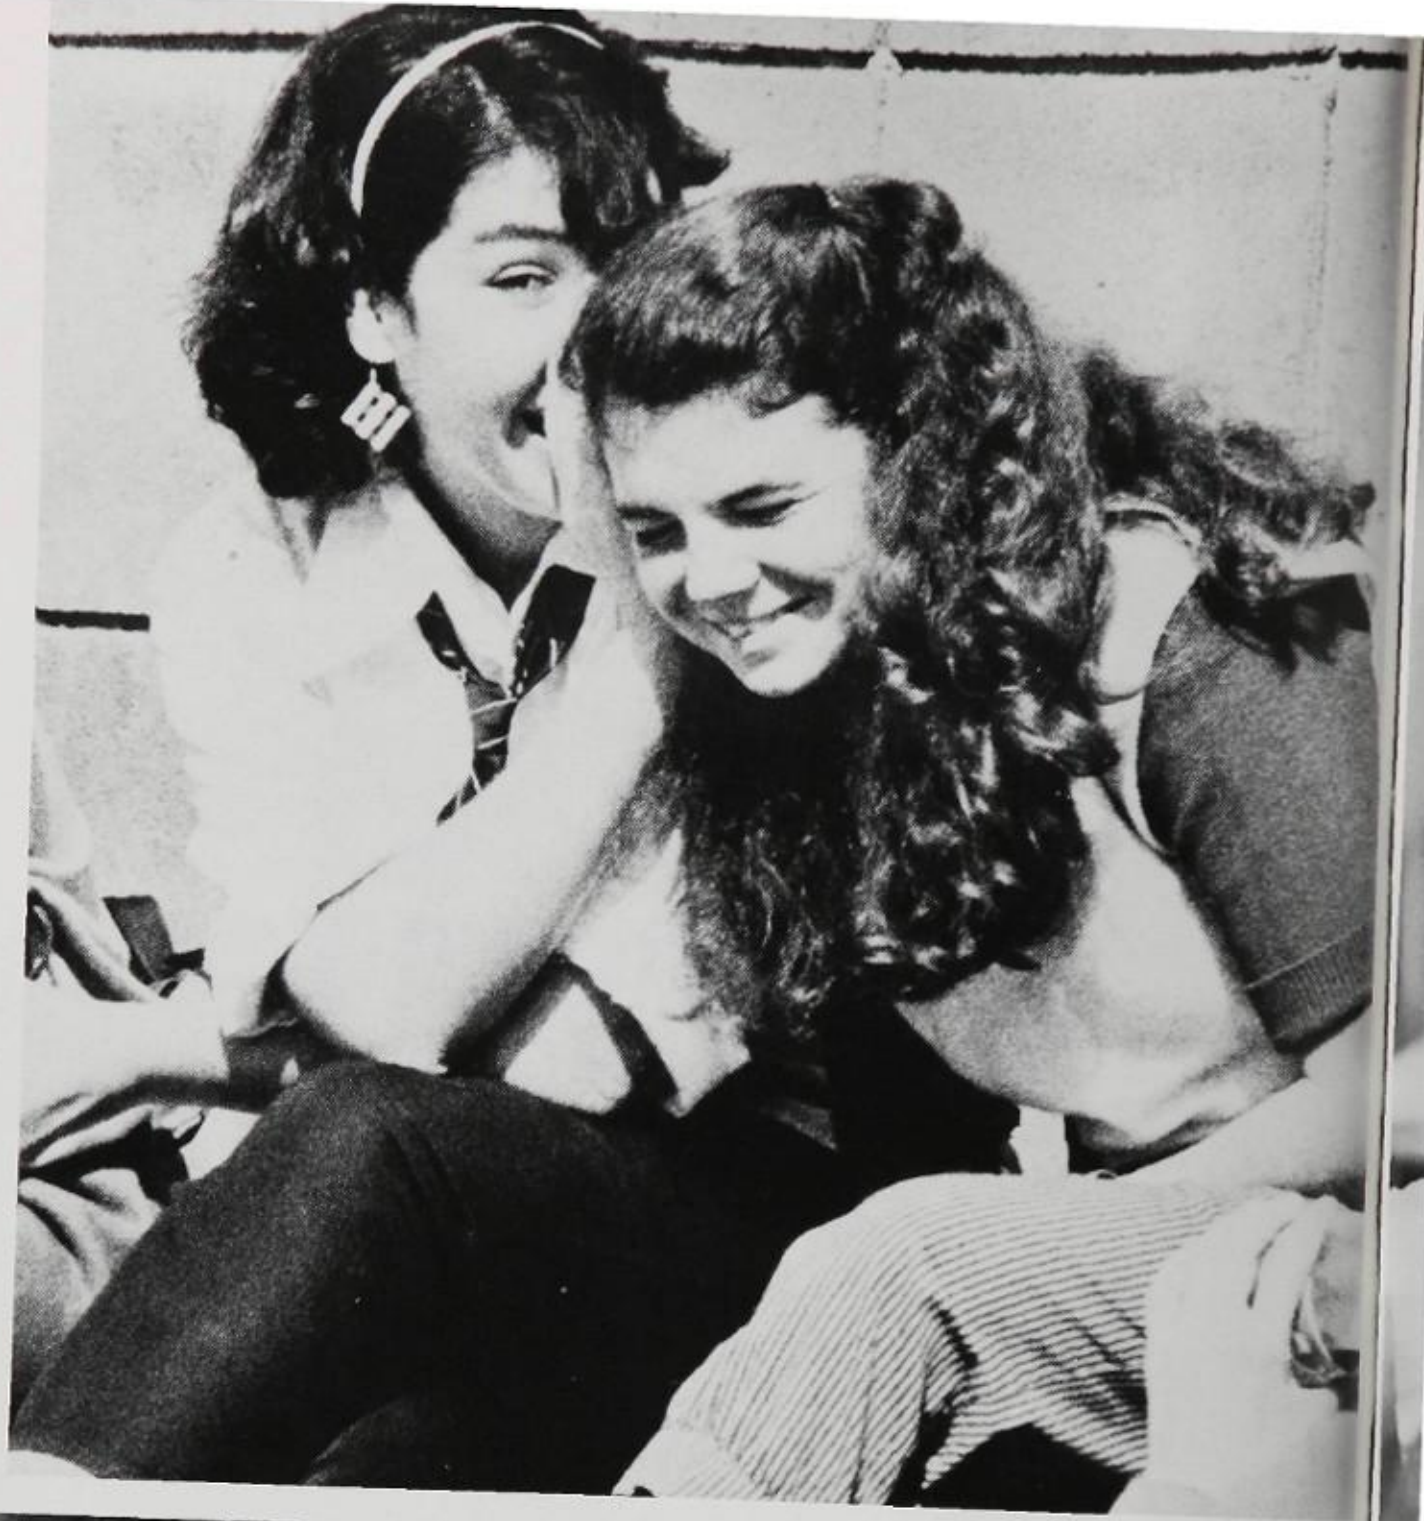

-La Mance

Life is what happens to us,
while we are busy
making other plans.

As I grow to understand life less and less I learn to live it more and more.

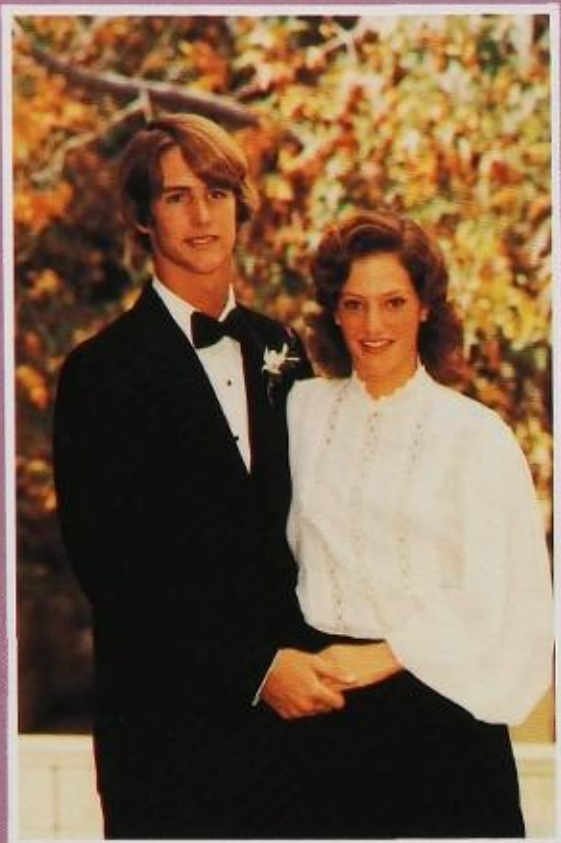

— Jules Renard

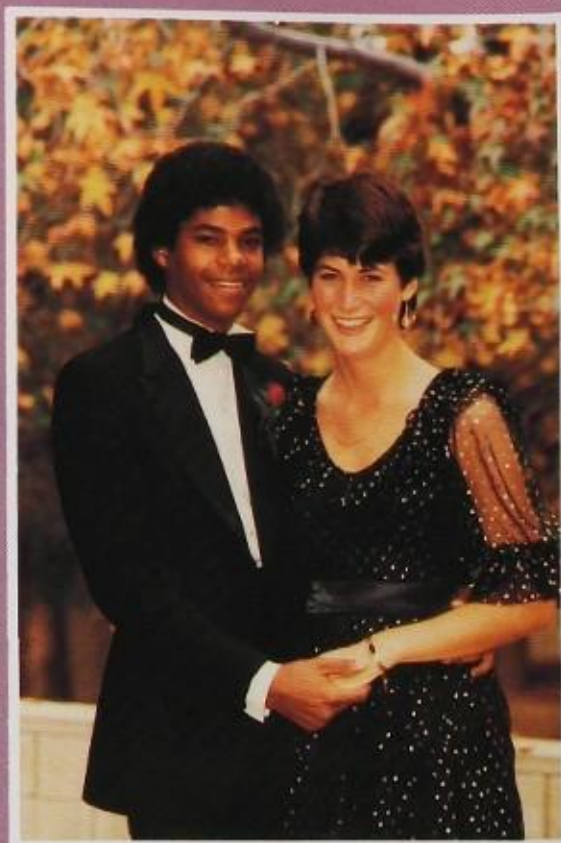

A man isn't poor if he can still laugh.

EXCITATION

I count myself in nothing else so happy
As in a soul remembering my good friends.
Shakespeare, Richard II

I like men to behave like men-strong and childish-
F. Sagan

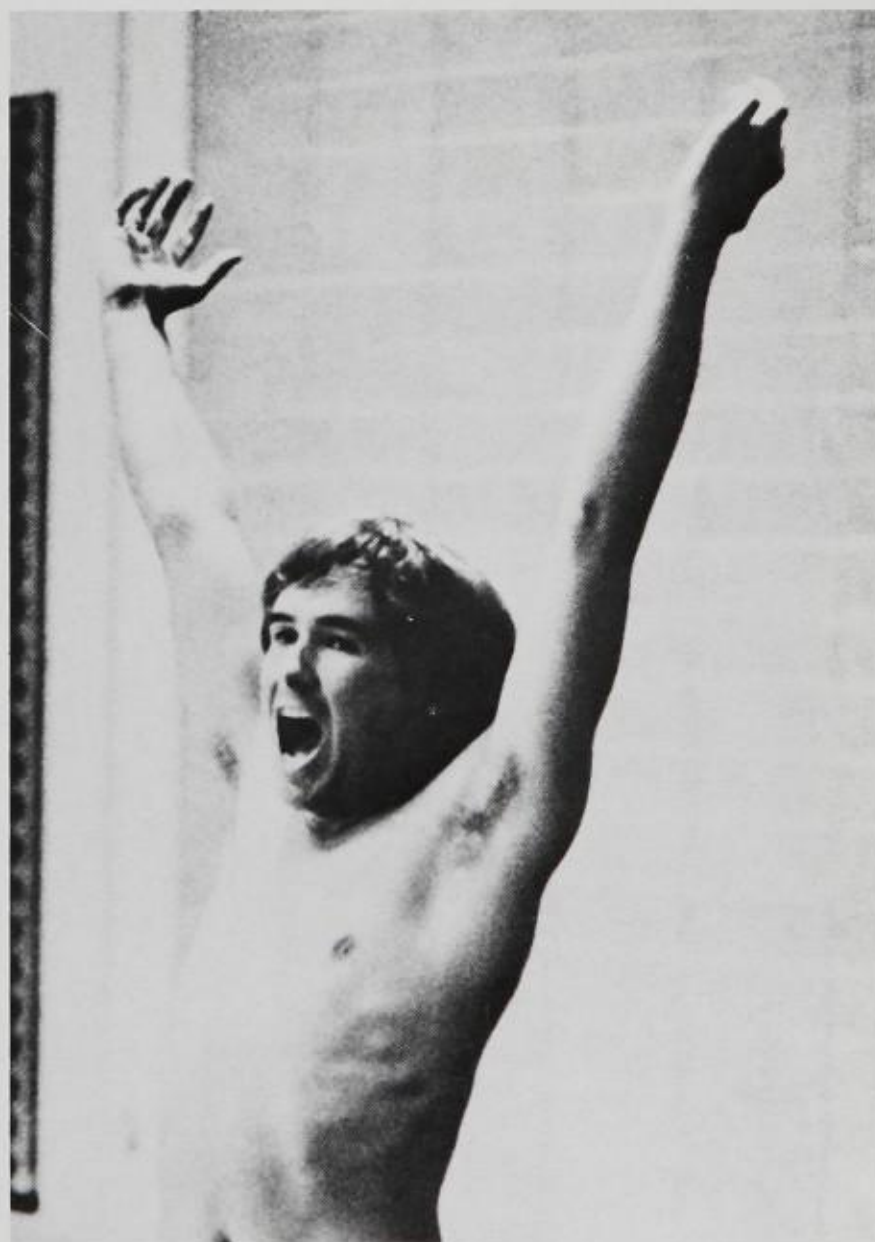

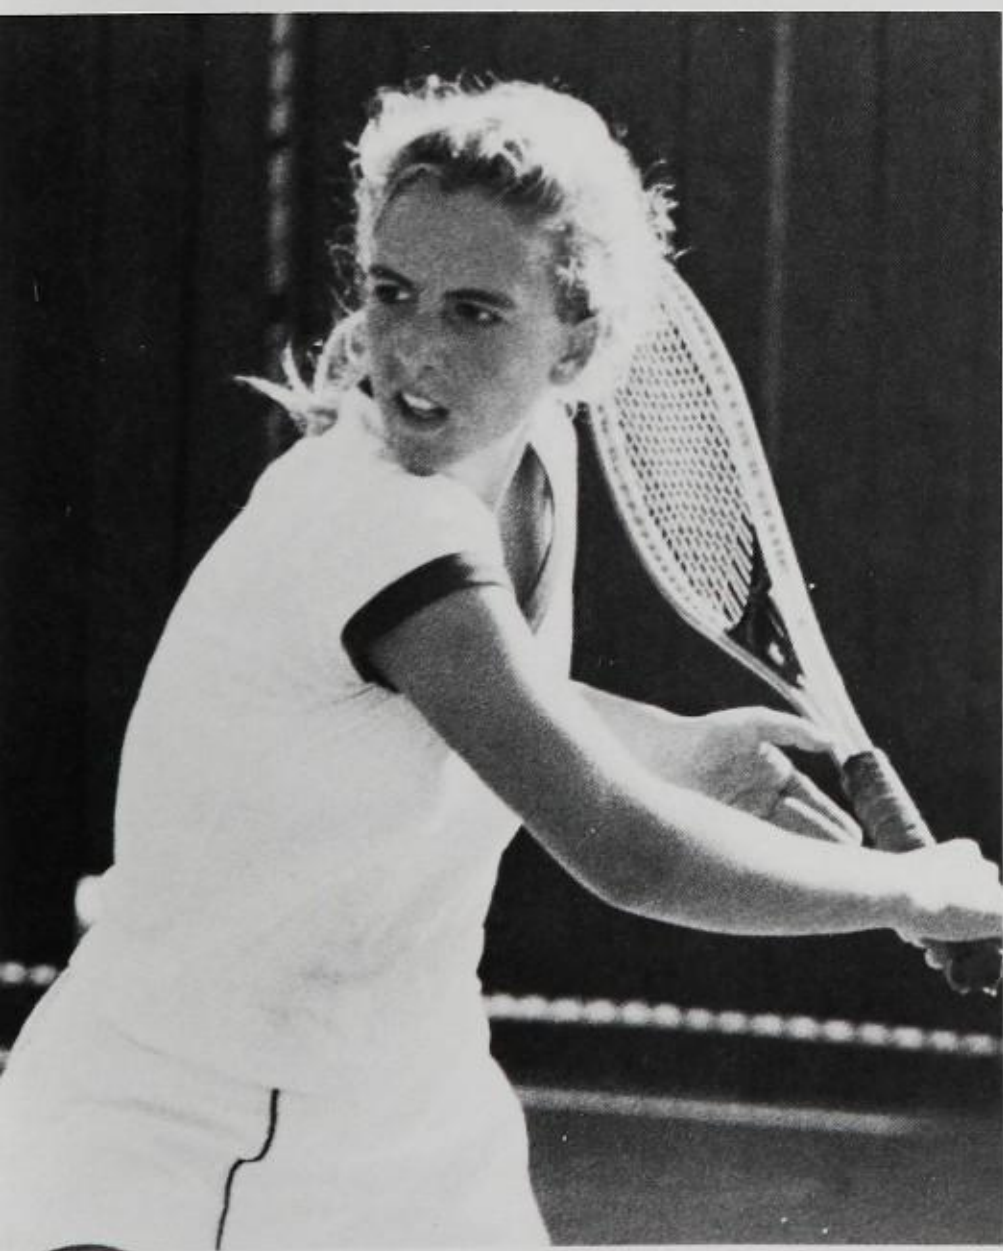

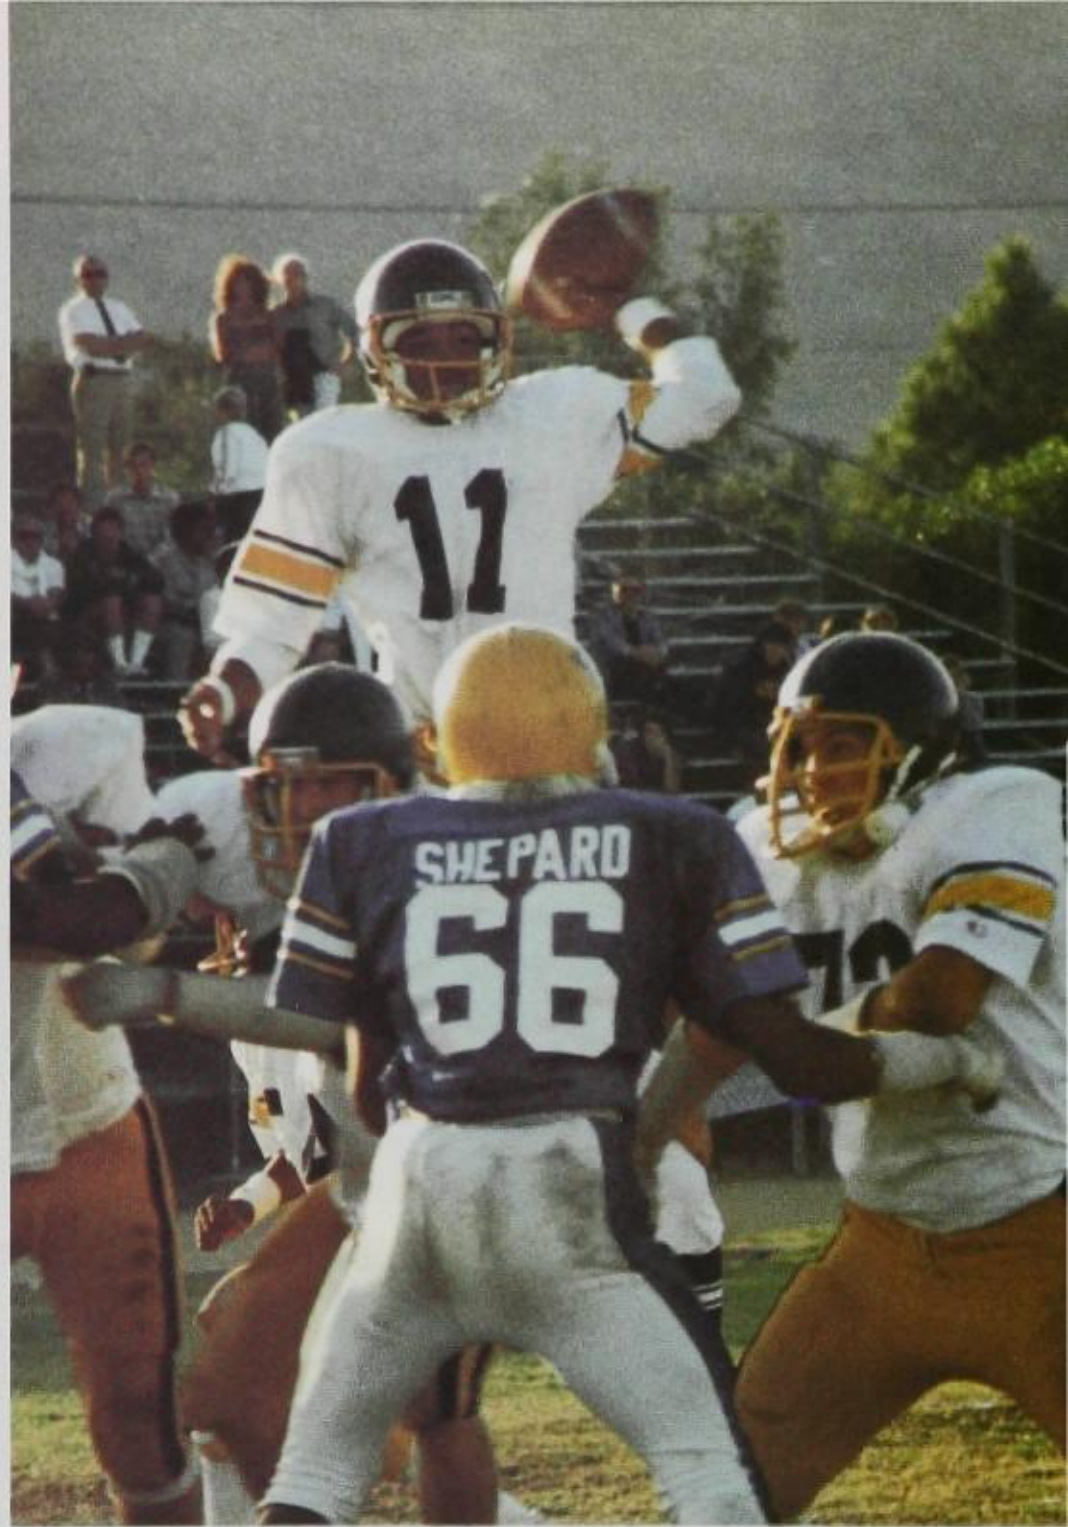

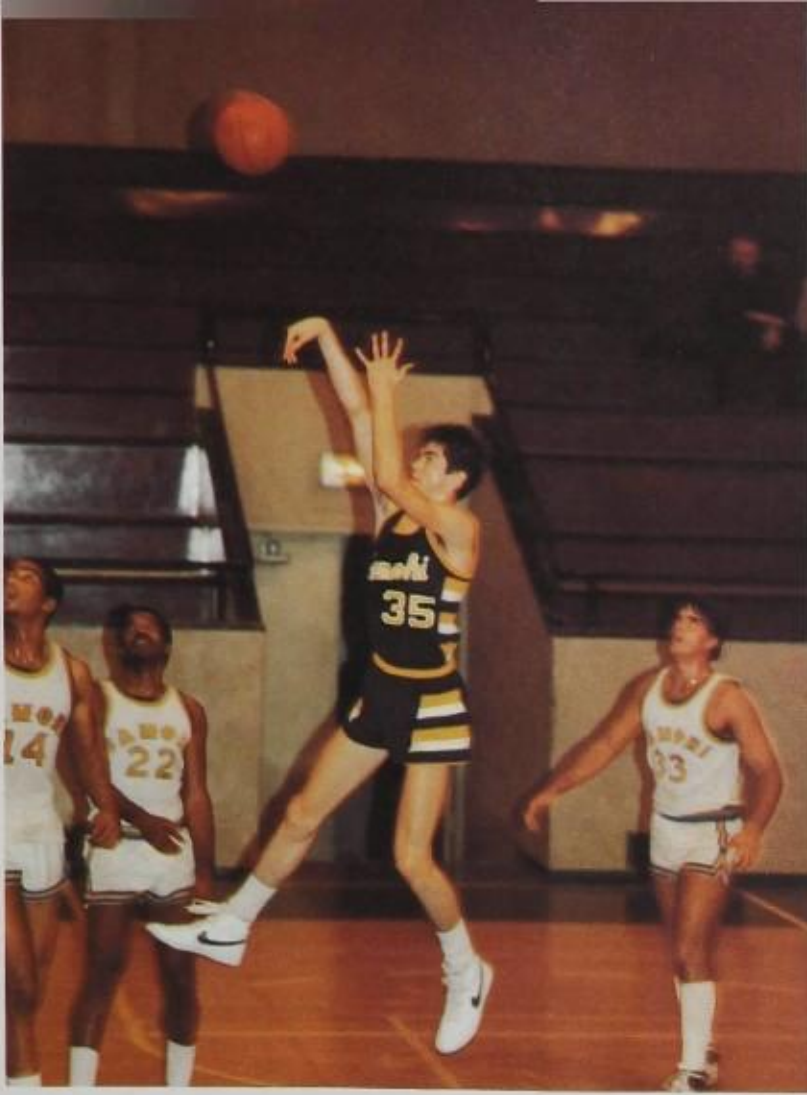

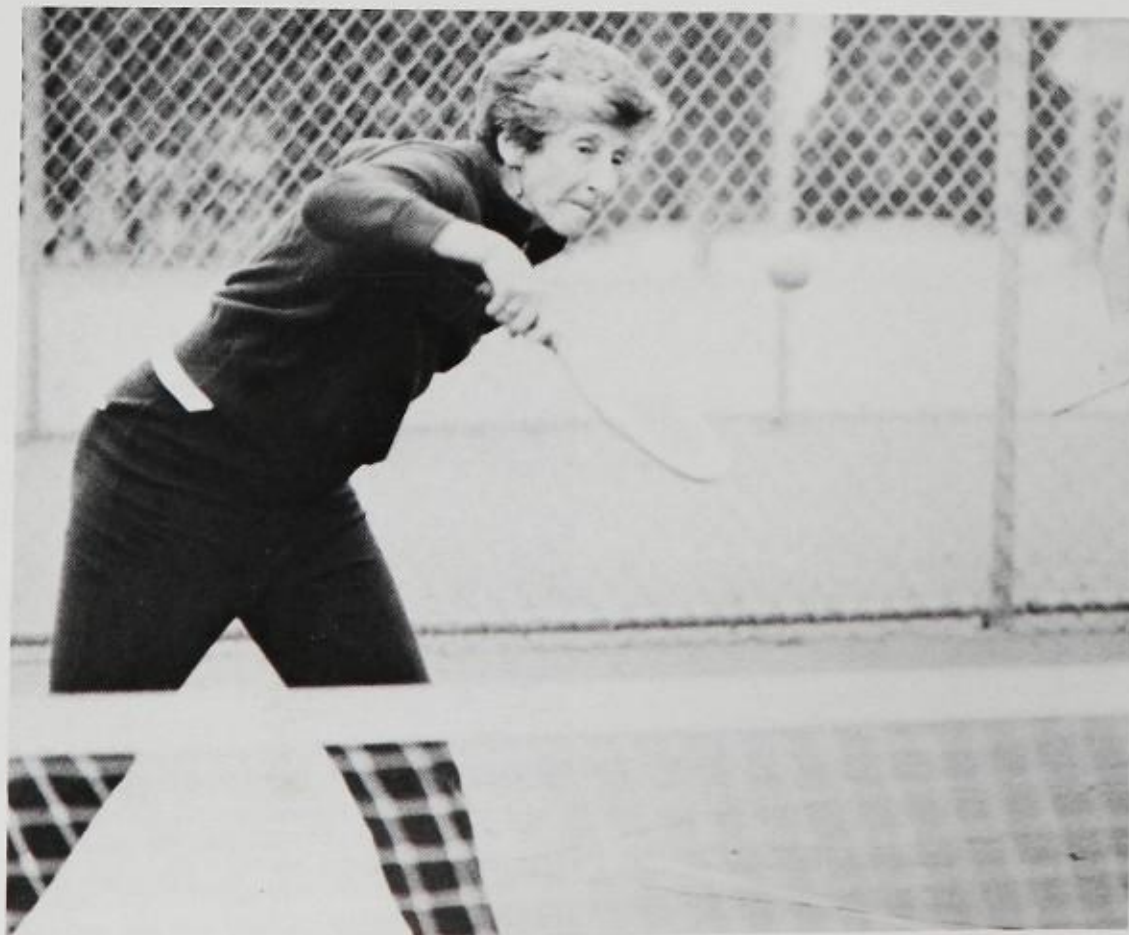

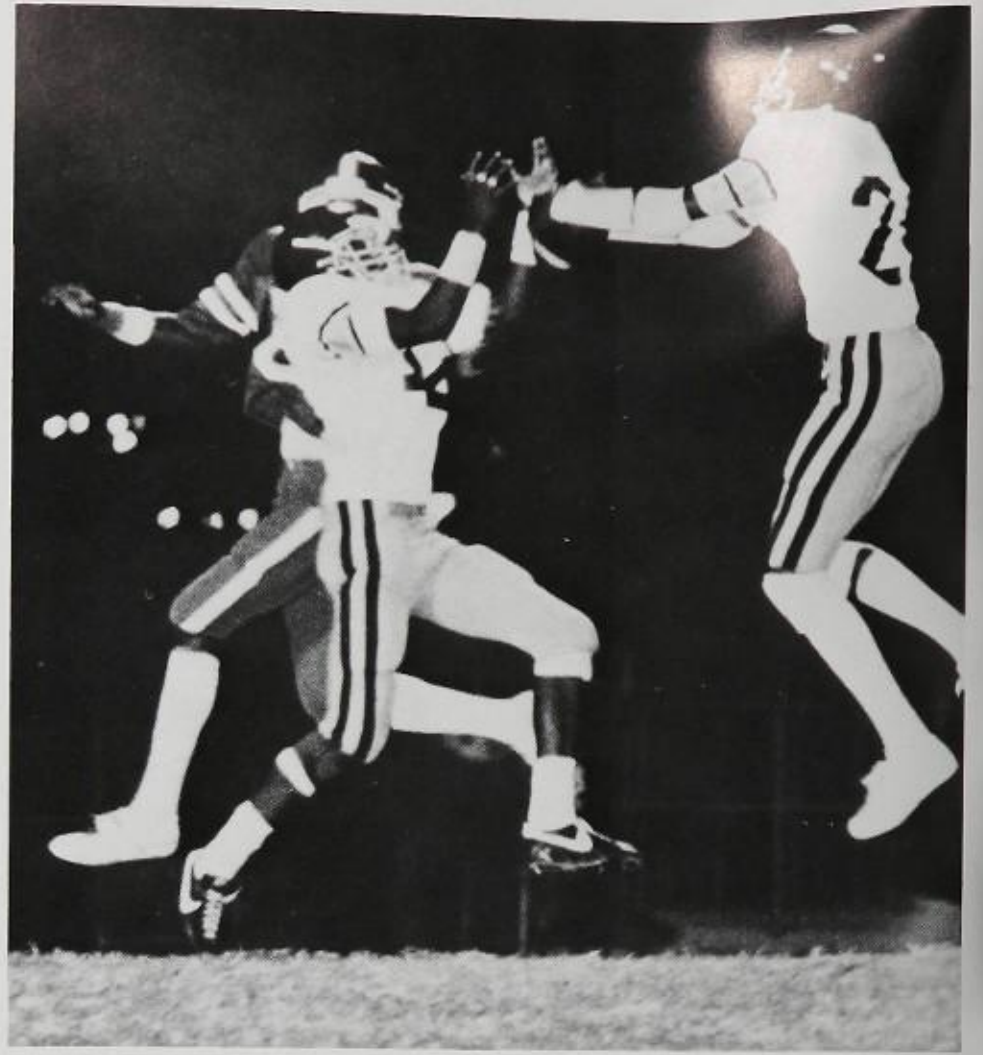

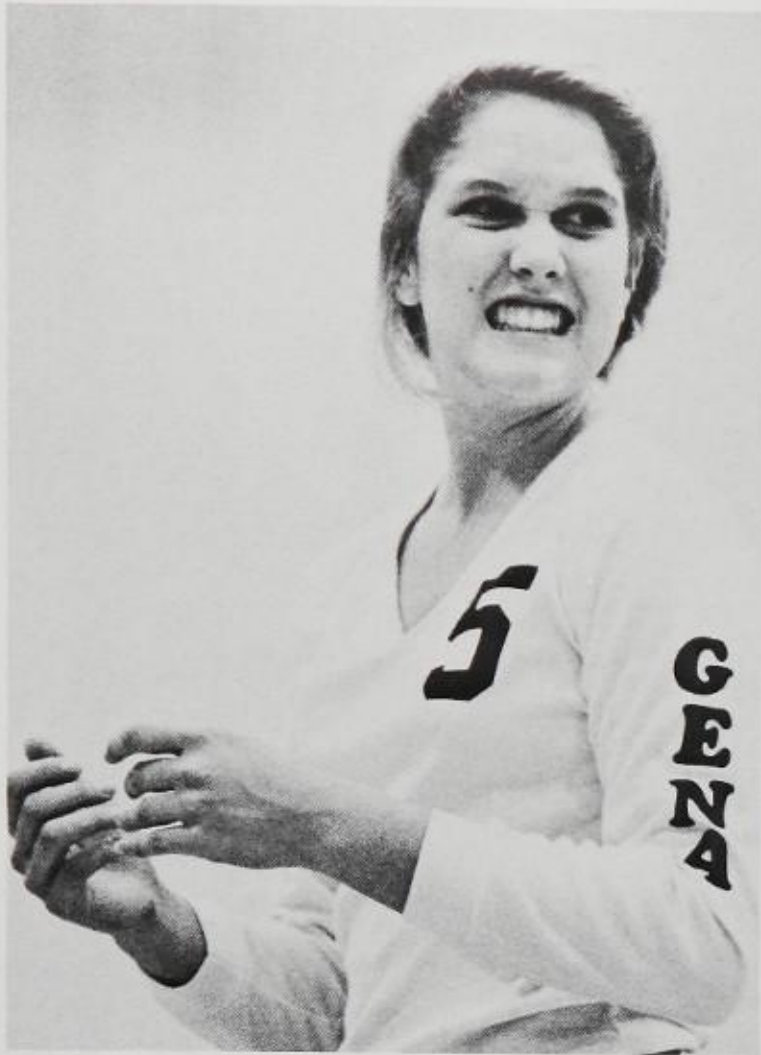

If fate means you to lose, give him a good fight anyhow.

Ambition is but the shadow of aspiration.

Anonymous

This world belongs to the energetic.

Emerson.

The surest way not to fail is to determine to succeed.

Sheridan

What is defeat? Nothing but the first step to something better

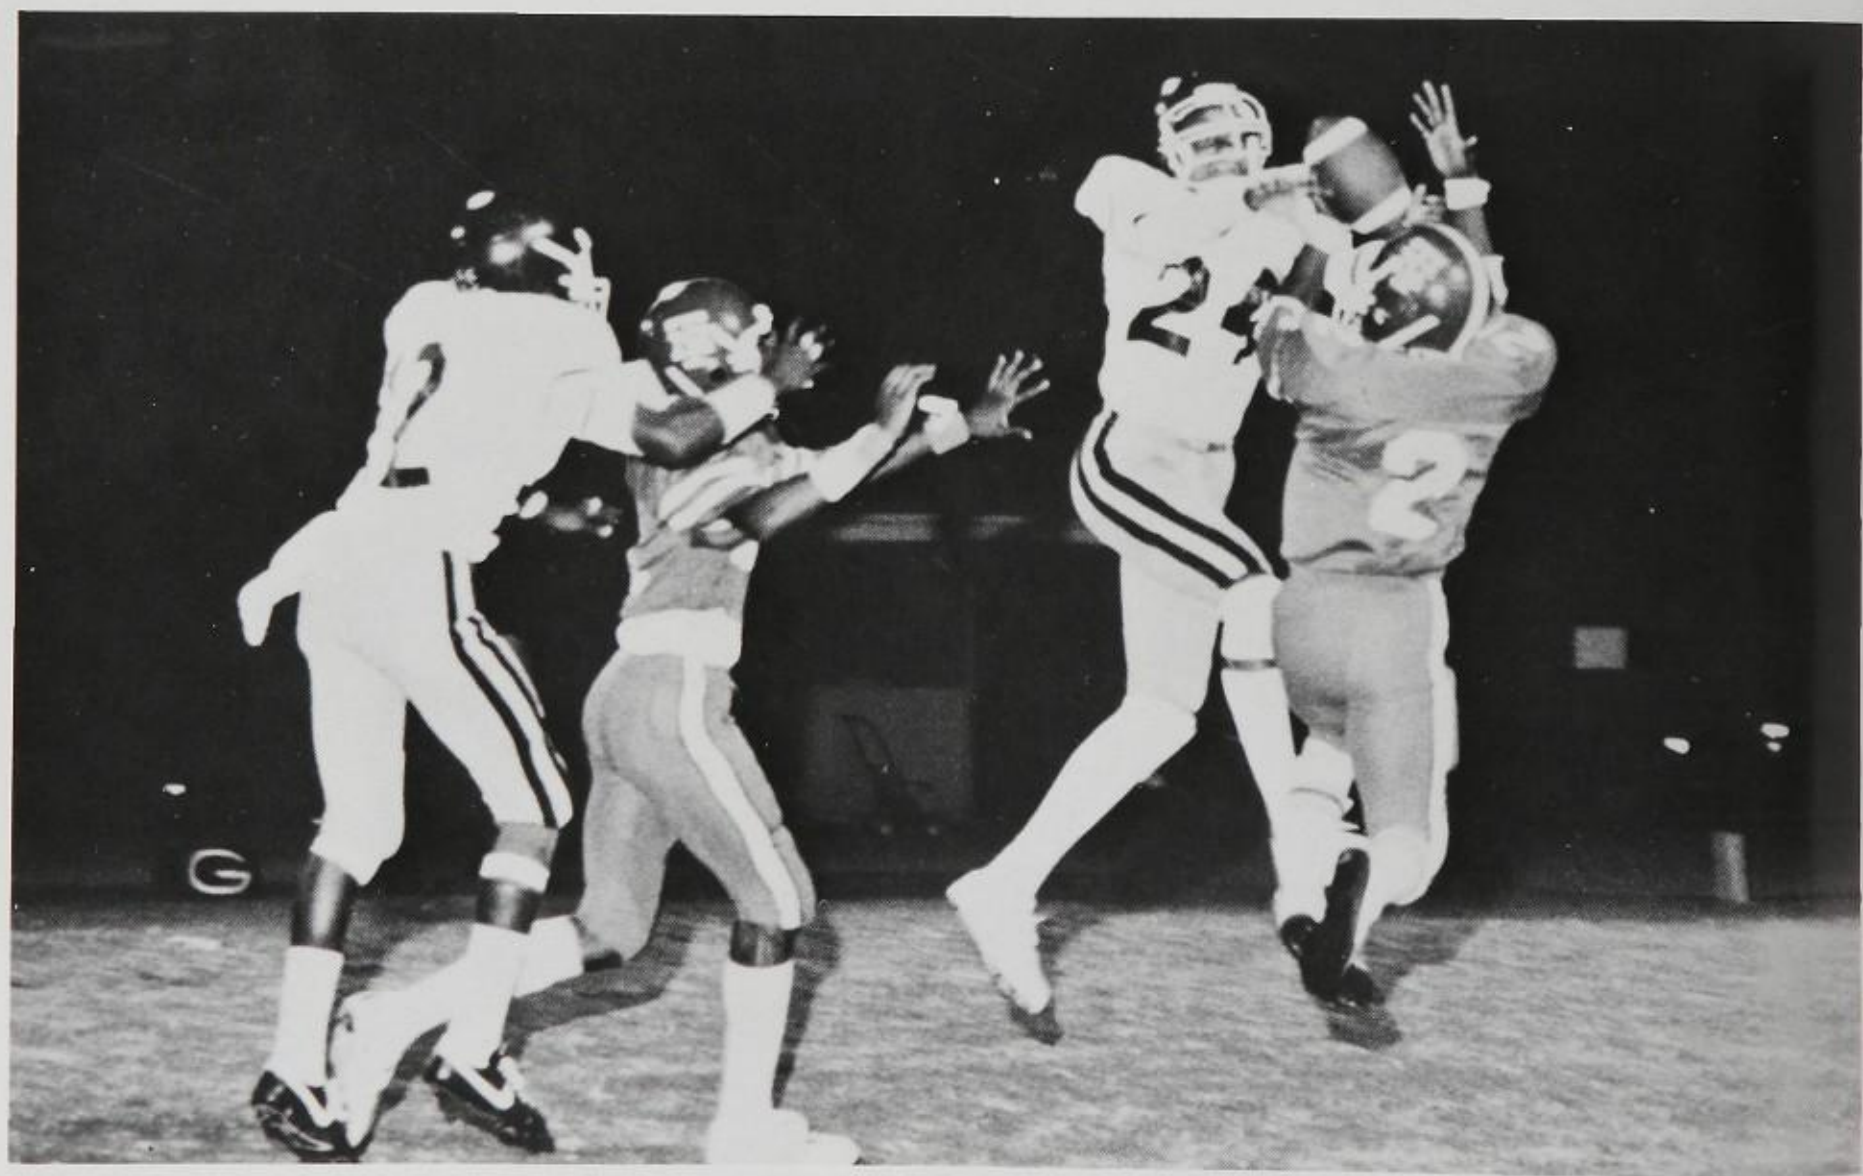

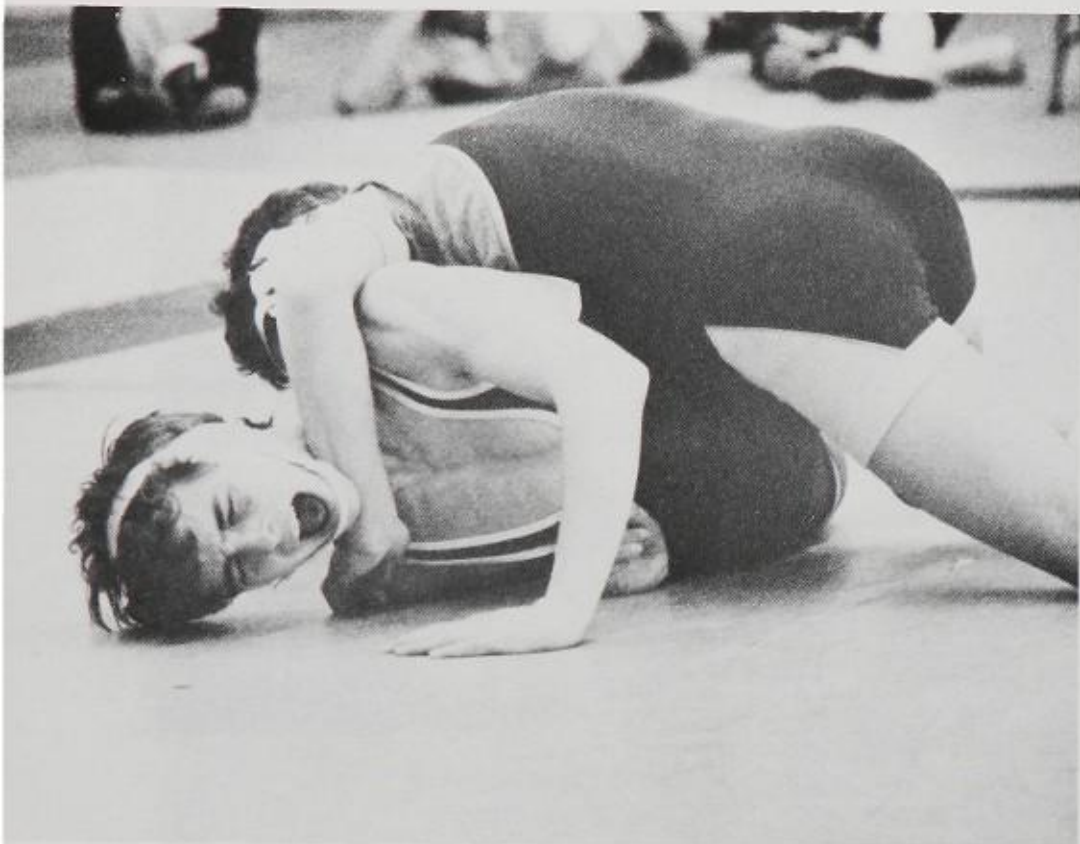

Wendell Phillips

In most things success depends on knowing how long it takes to succeed.

Montesquieu

Nothing can seen to foul those that
win. Shakespeare

We are not always what we seem and hardly ever what we dream

Peter Beagle

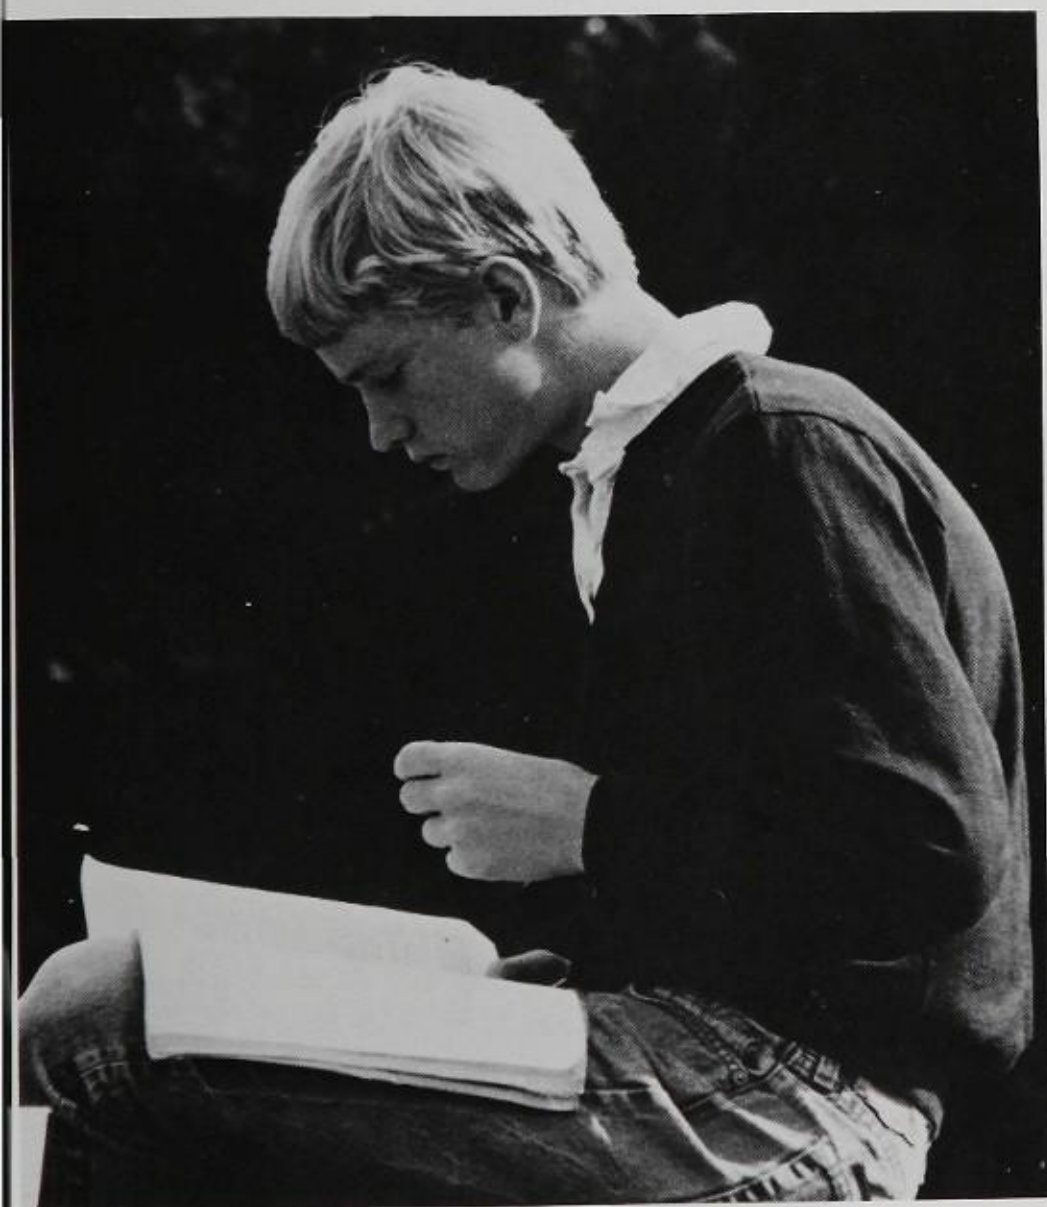

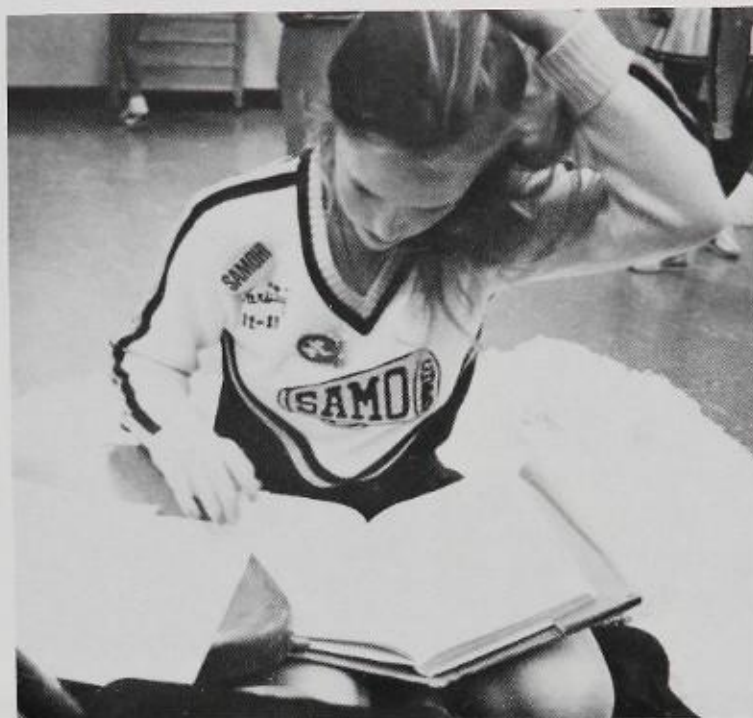

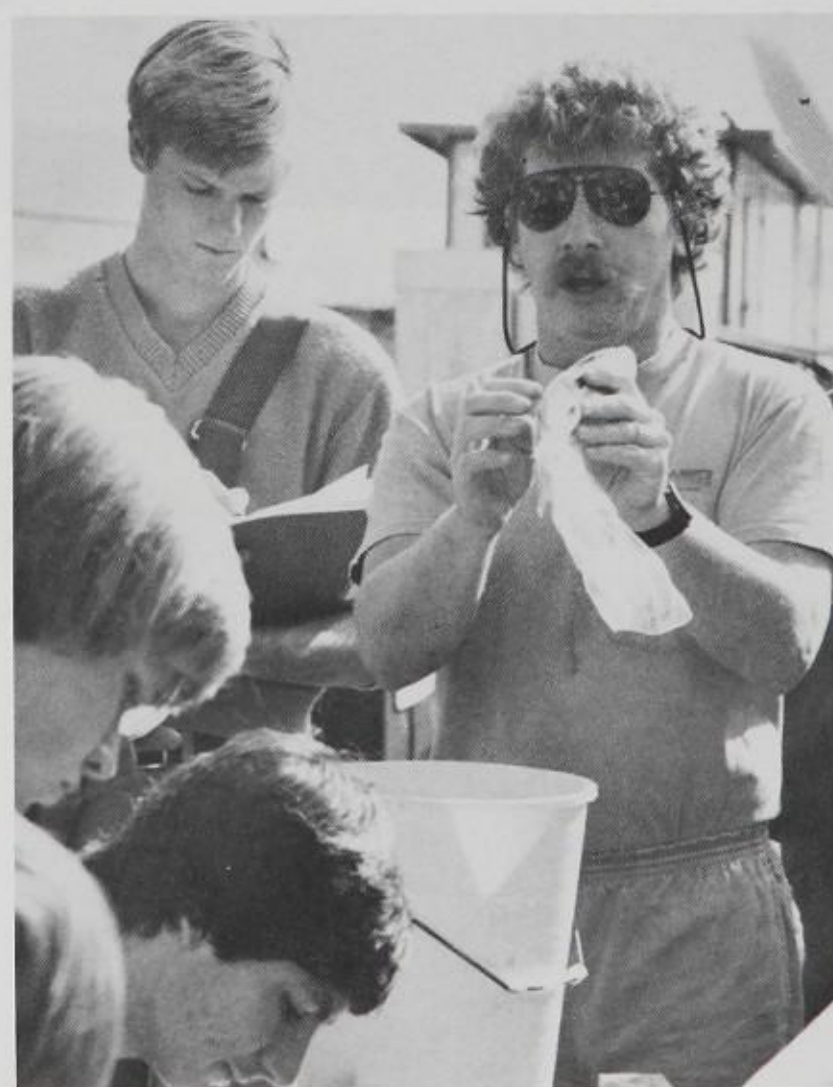

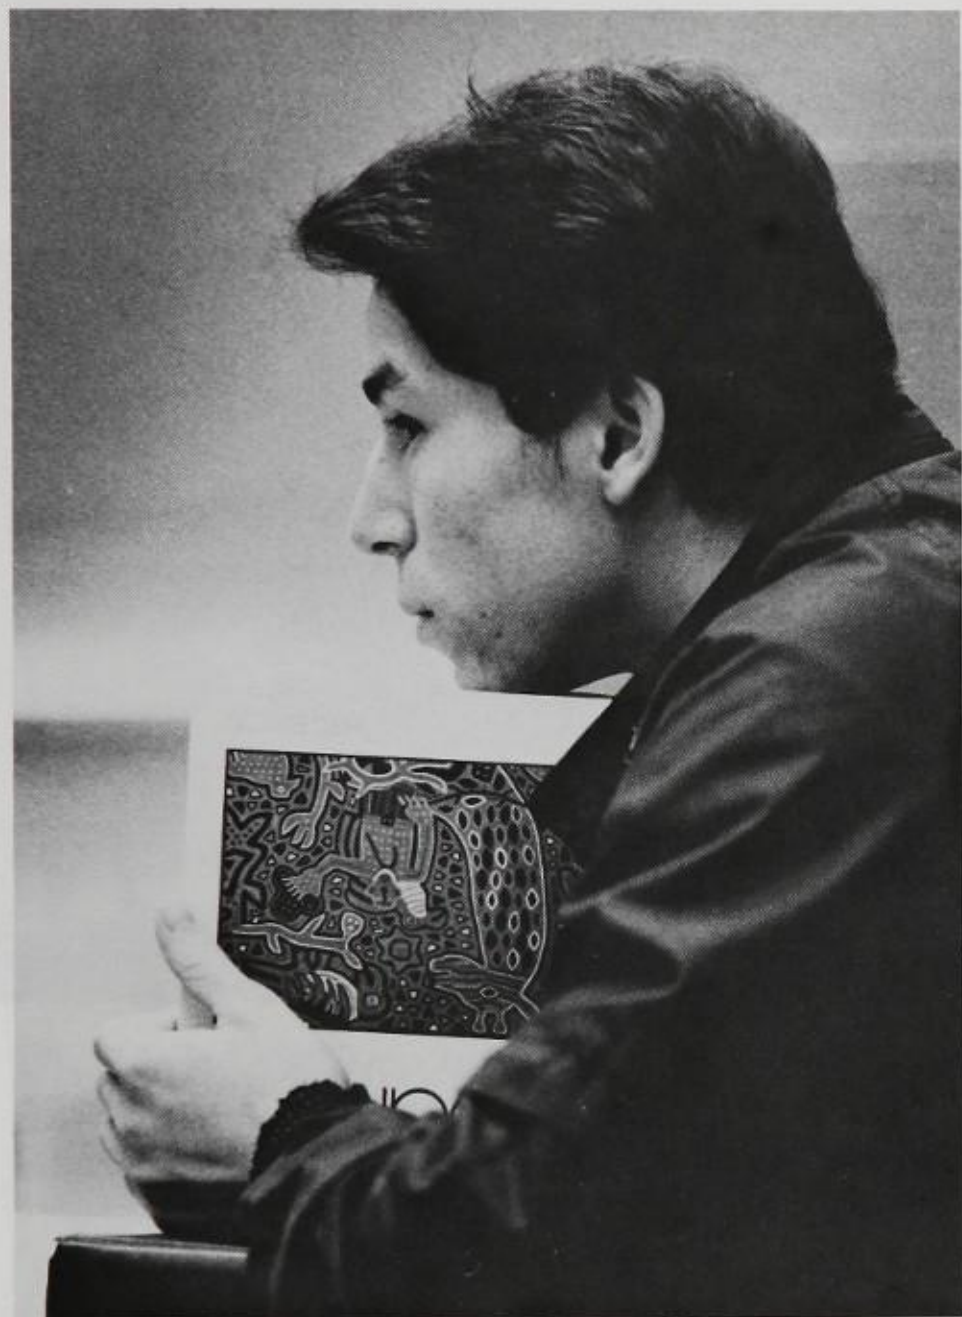

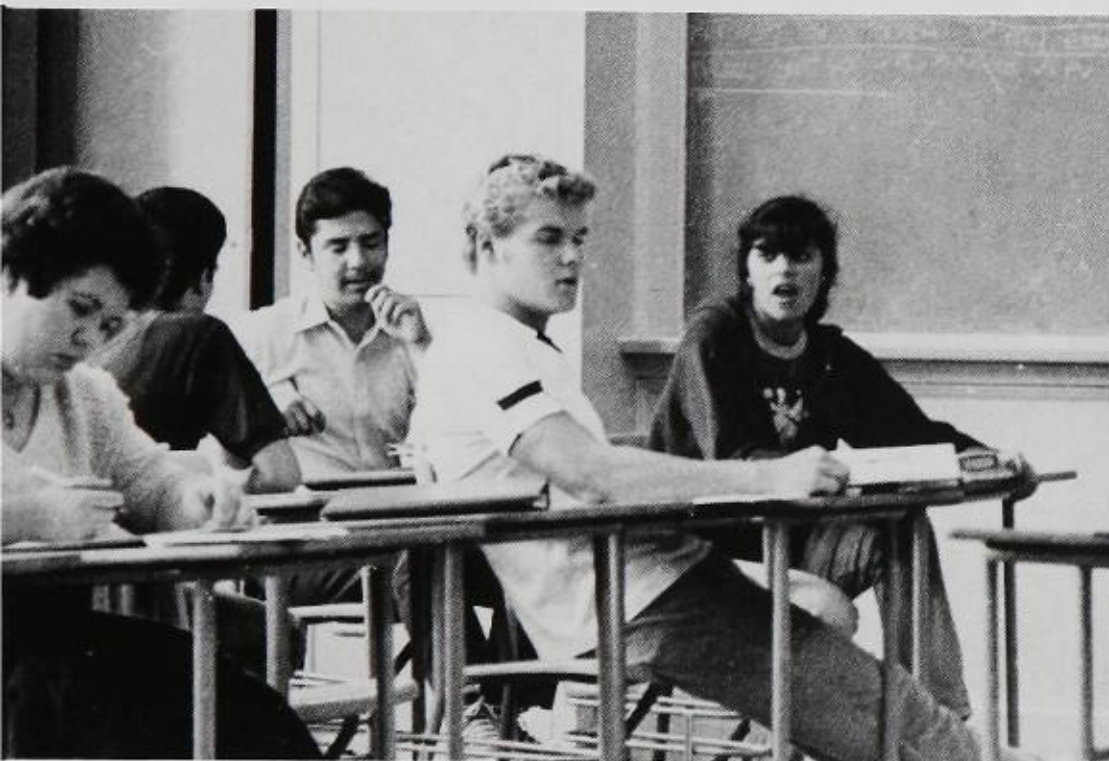

It may be those who do most, dream most.
S. Leacock

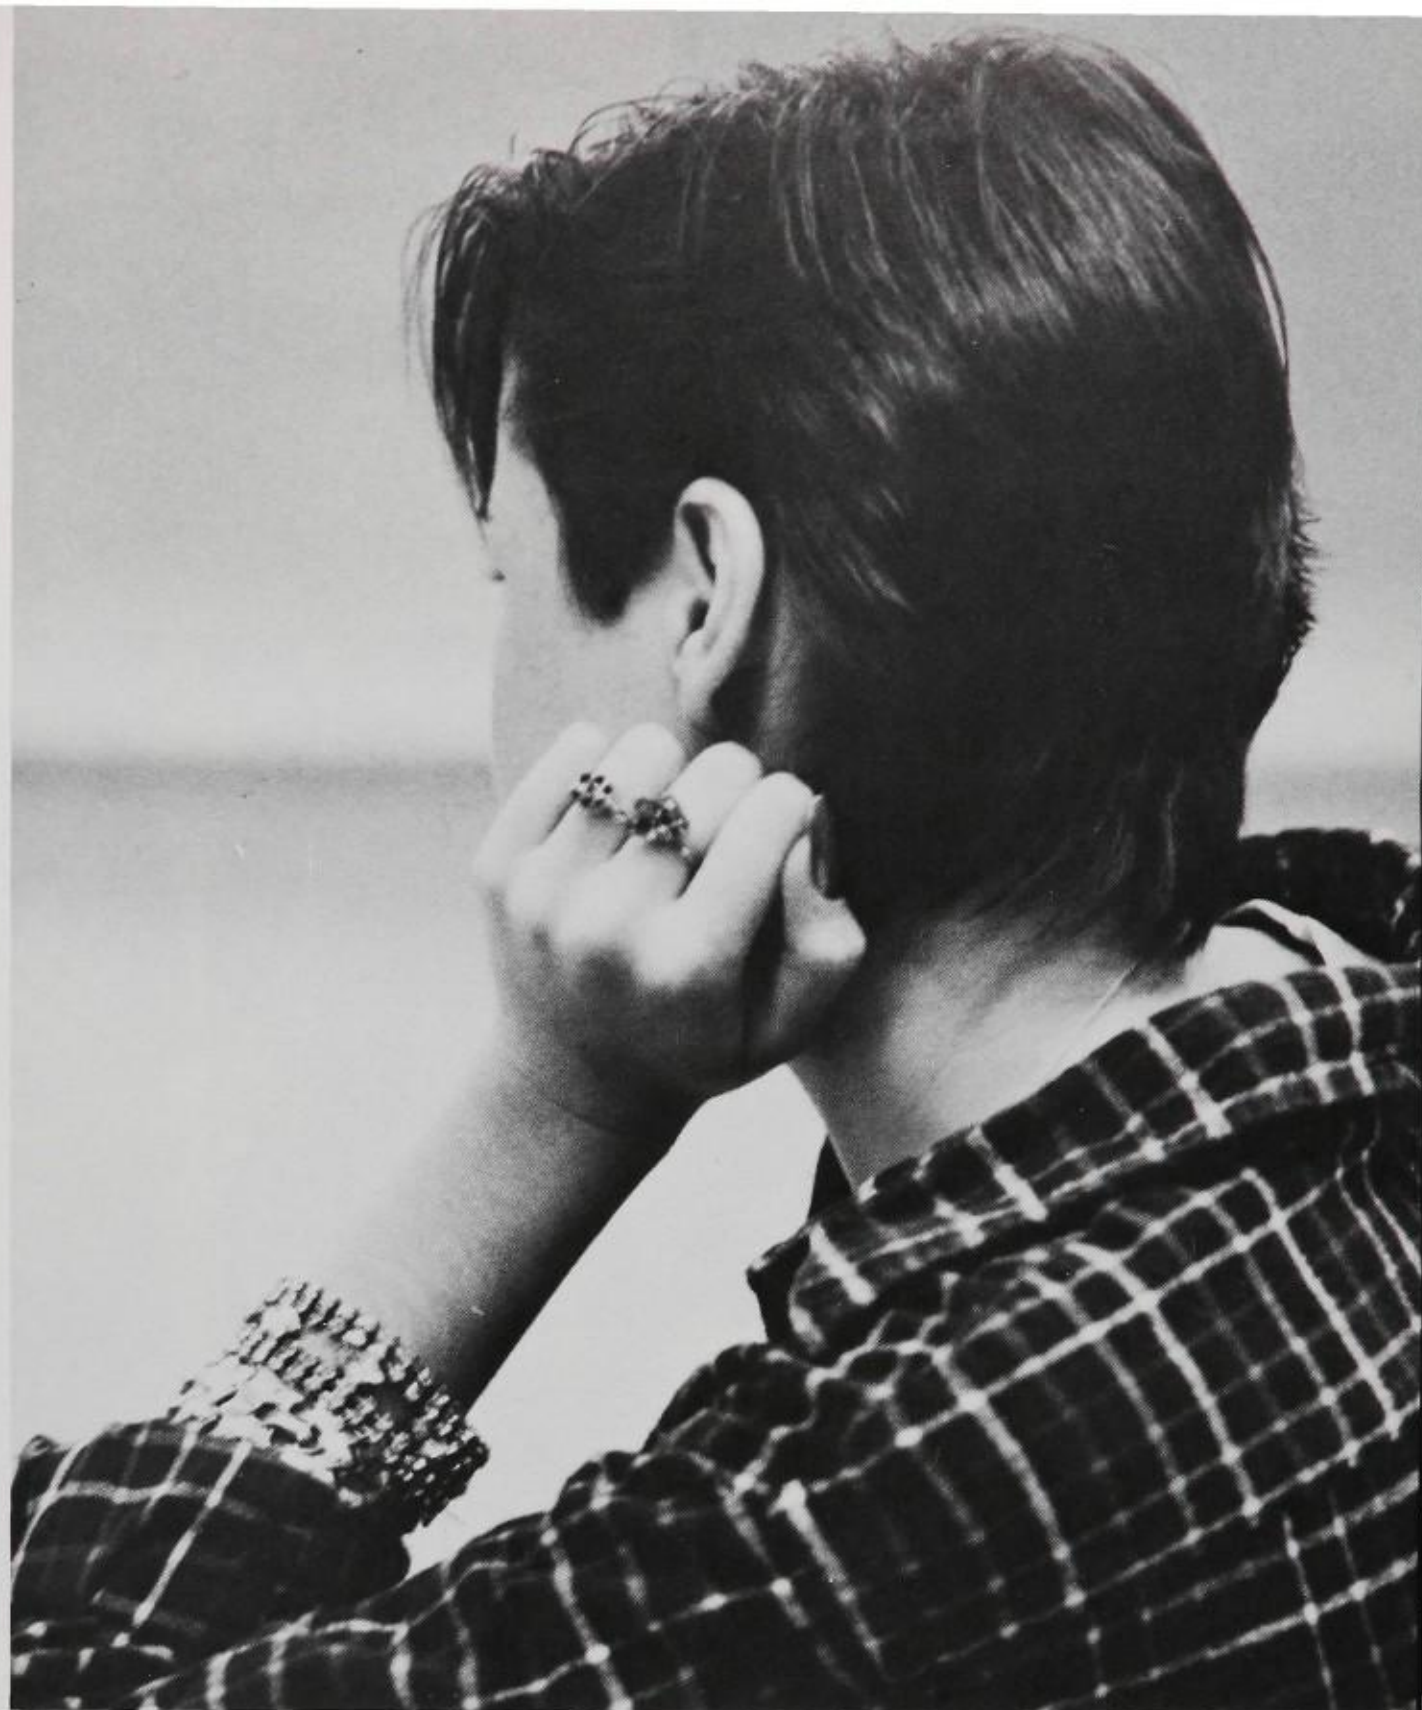

Just remember that what you are going to be tomorrow, you are becoming today.

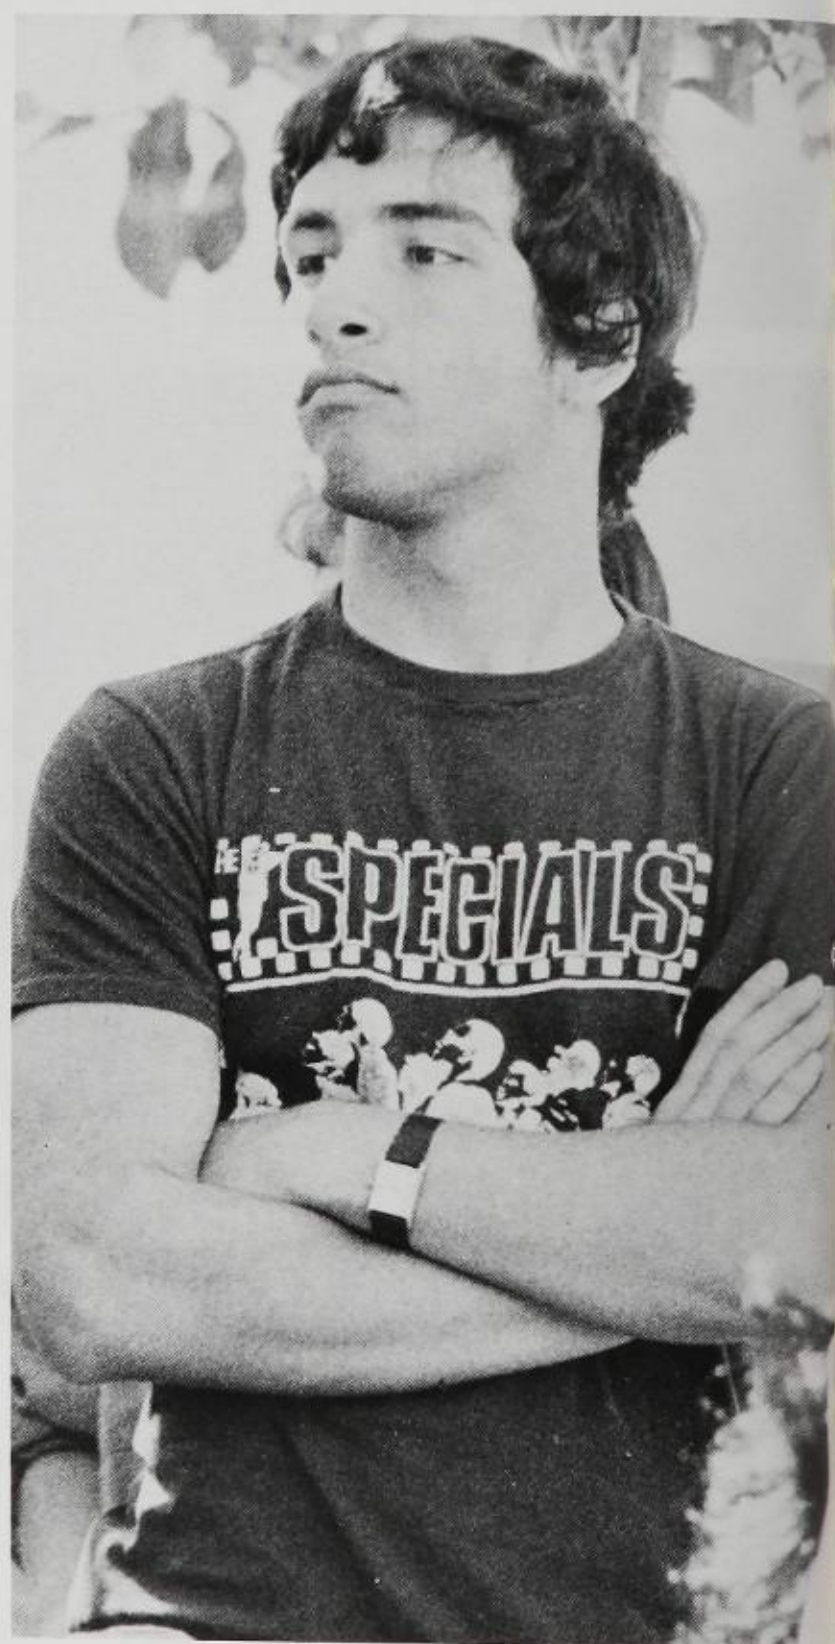

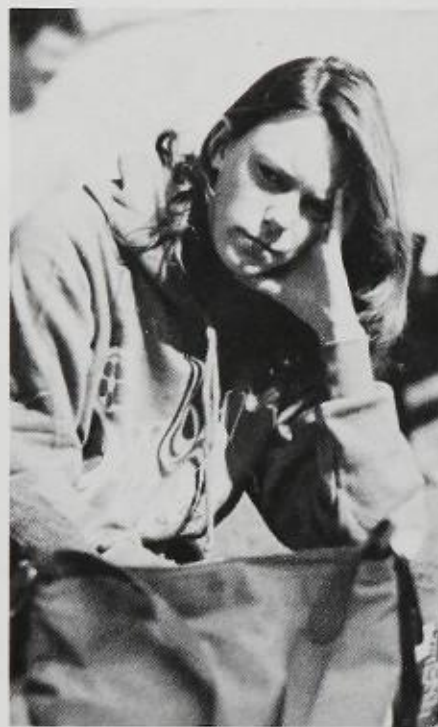

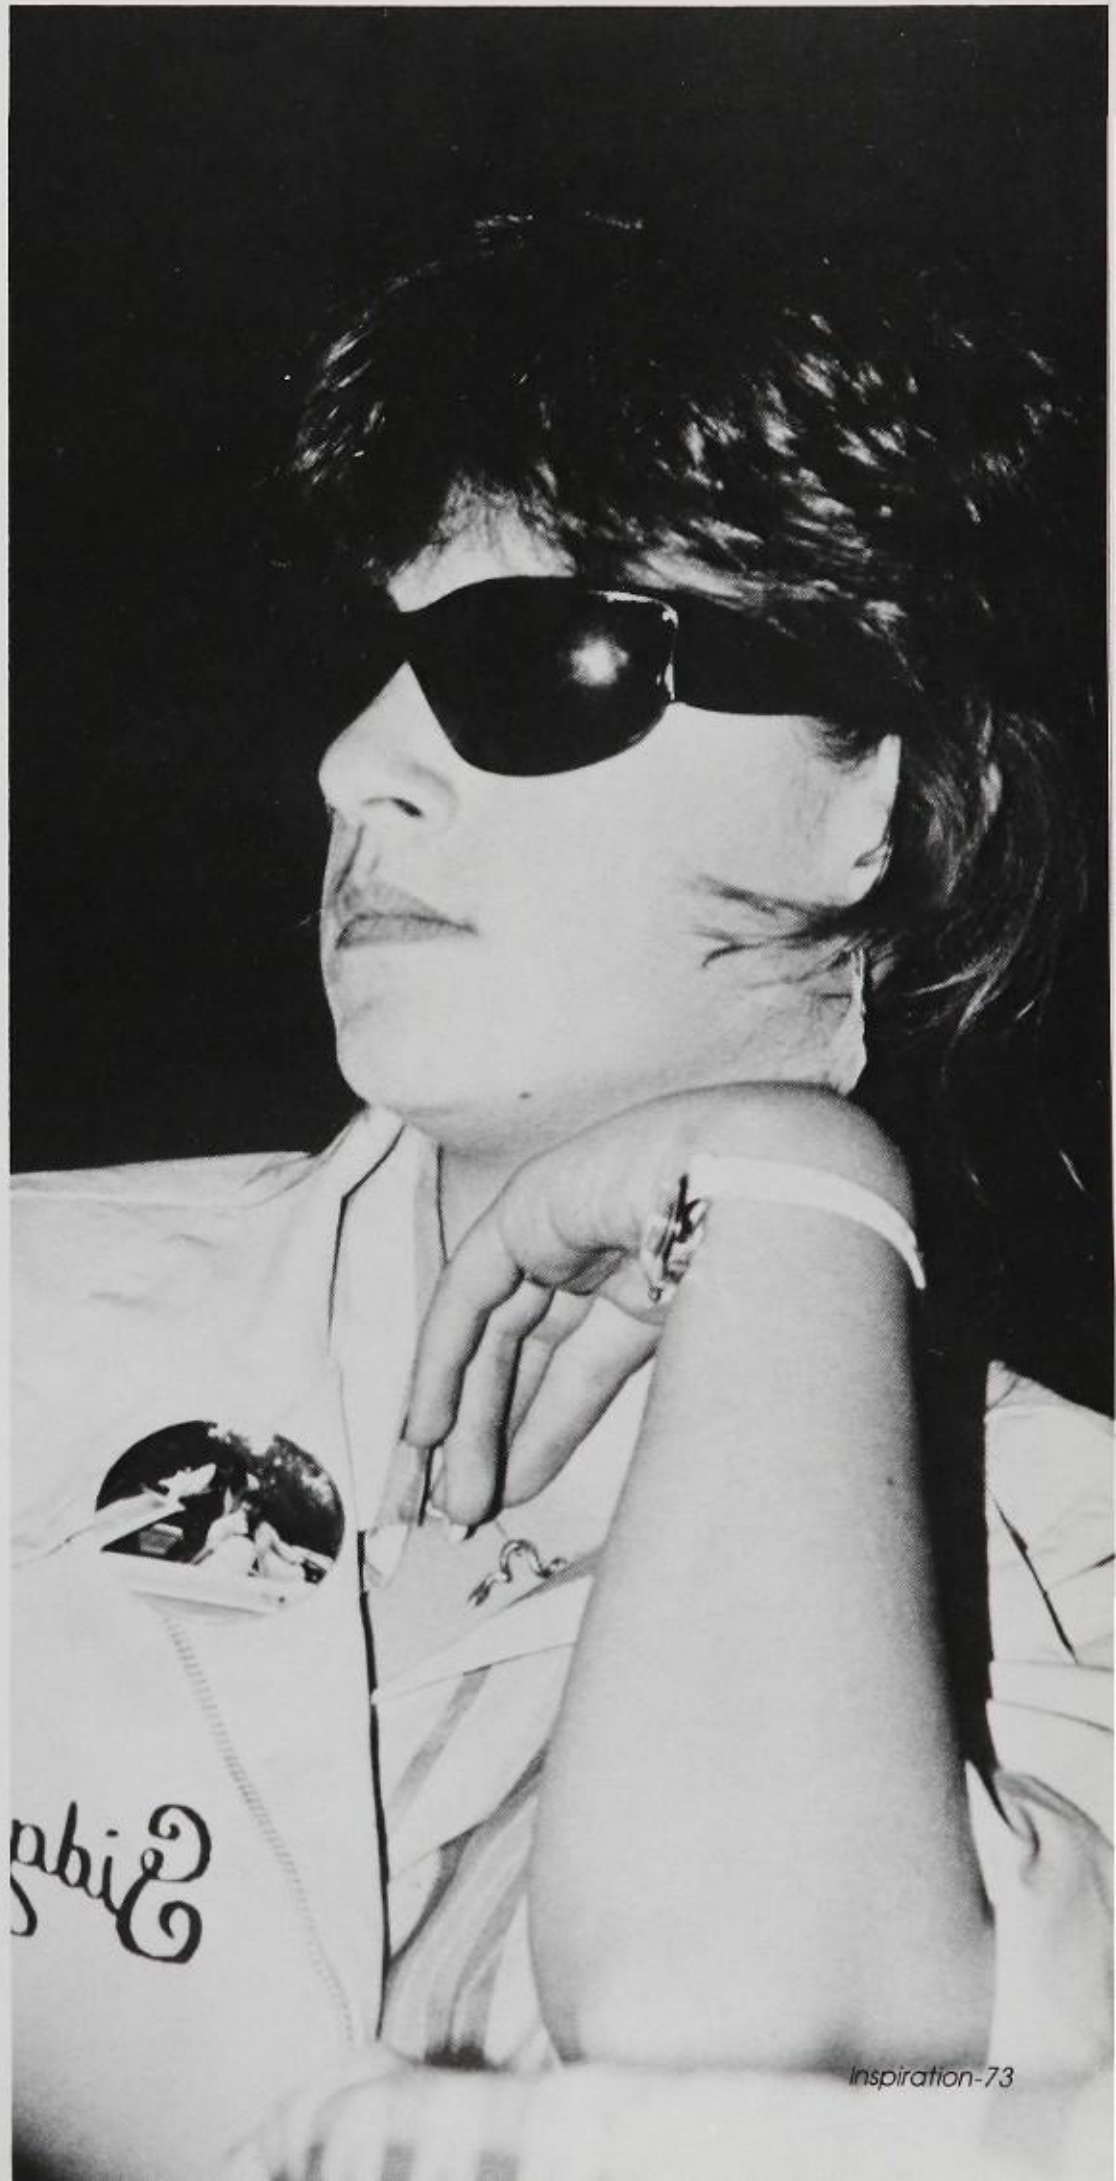

I am always ready to learn, although I do not always like being taught

-W. Churchill

To inspire hopeless passion is my destiny.

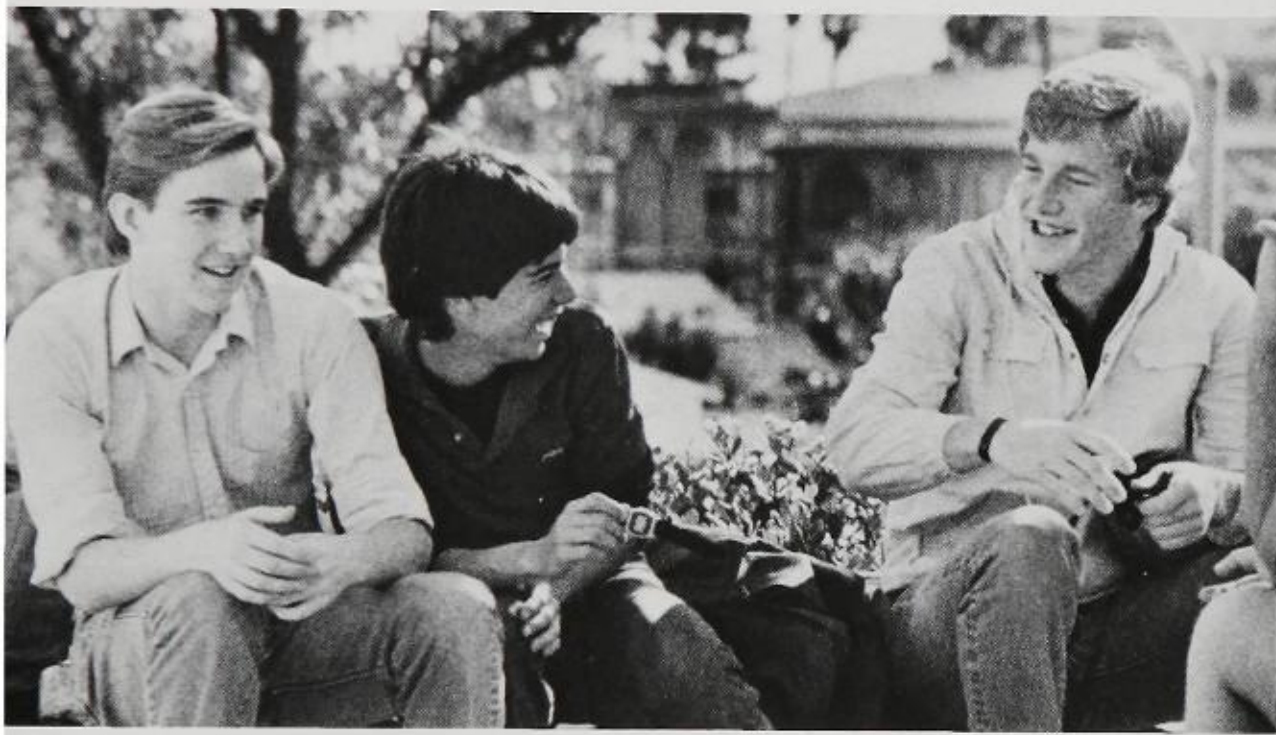

W. Thackeray

The only safe and sure way to destroy an enemy is to make him your friend.

One's friends are that part of the human race with which one can be human. -Santayana

What the future holds for us, depends on what we hold for the future.

-W. Holler

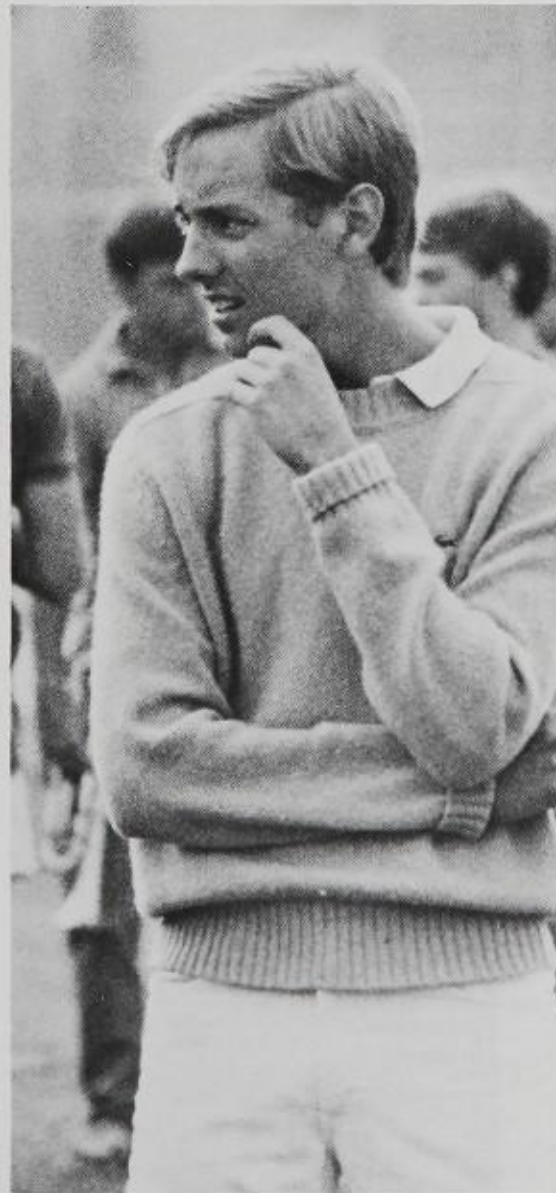

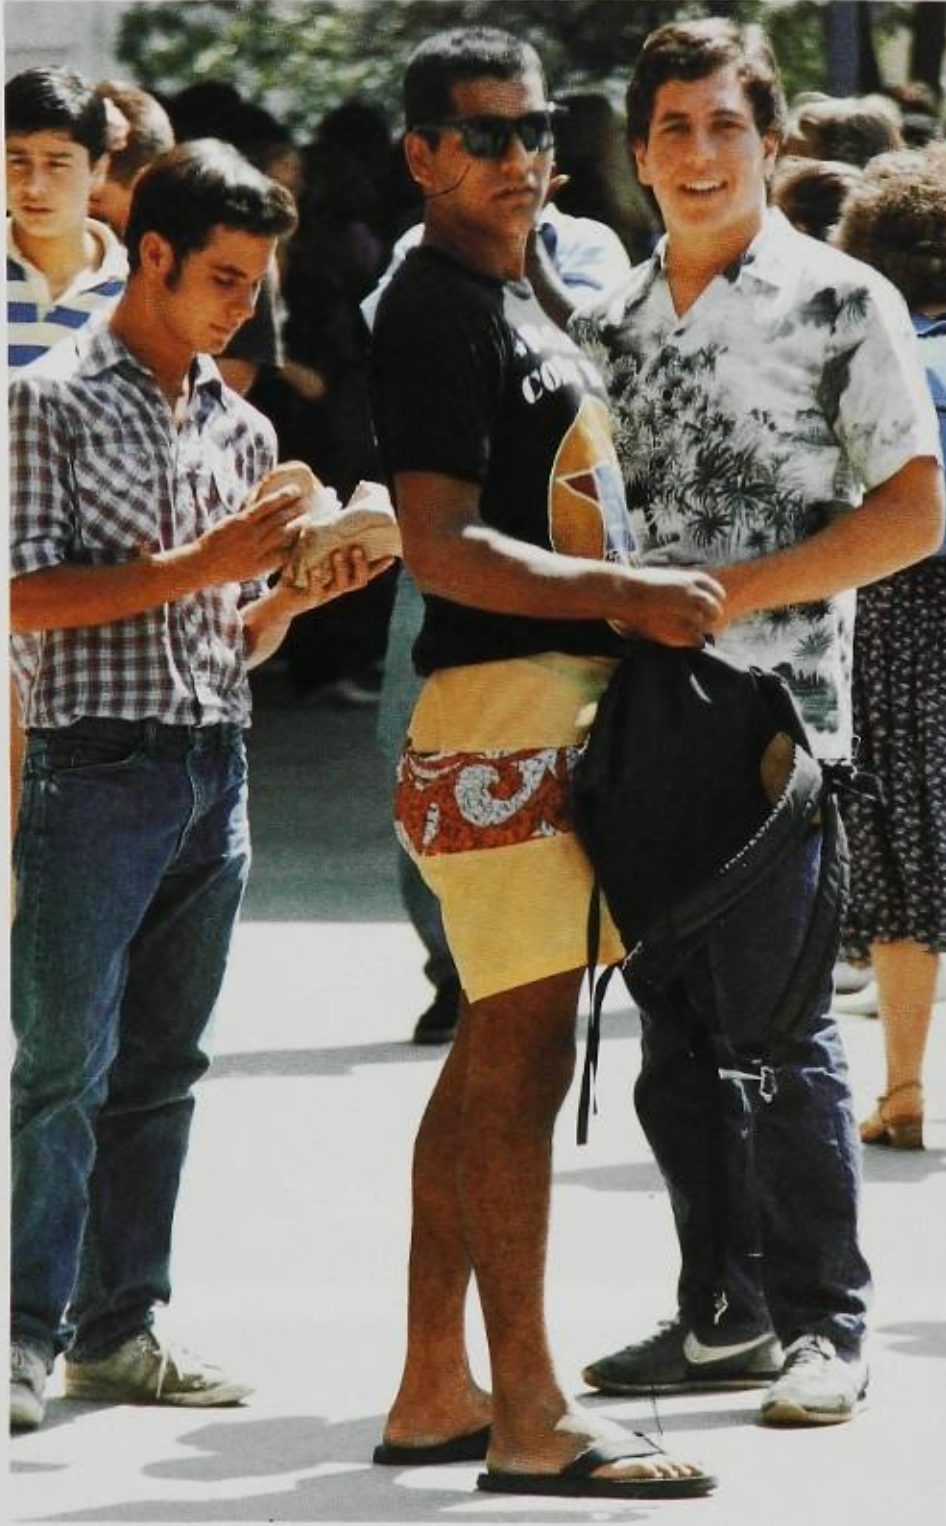

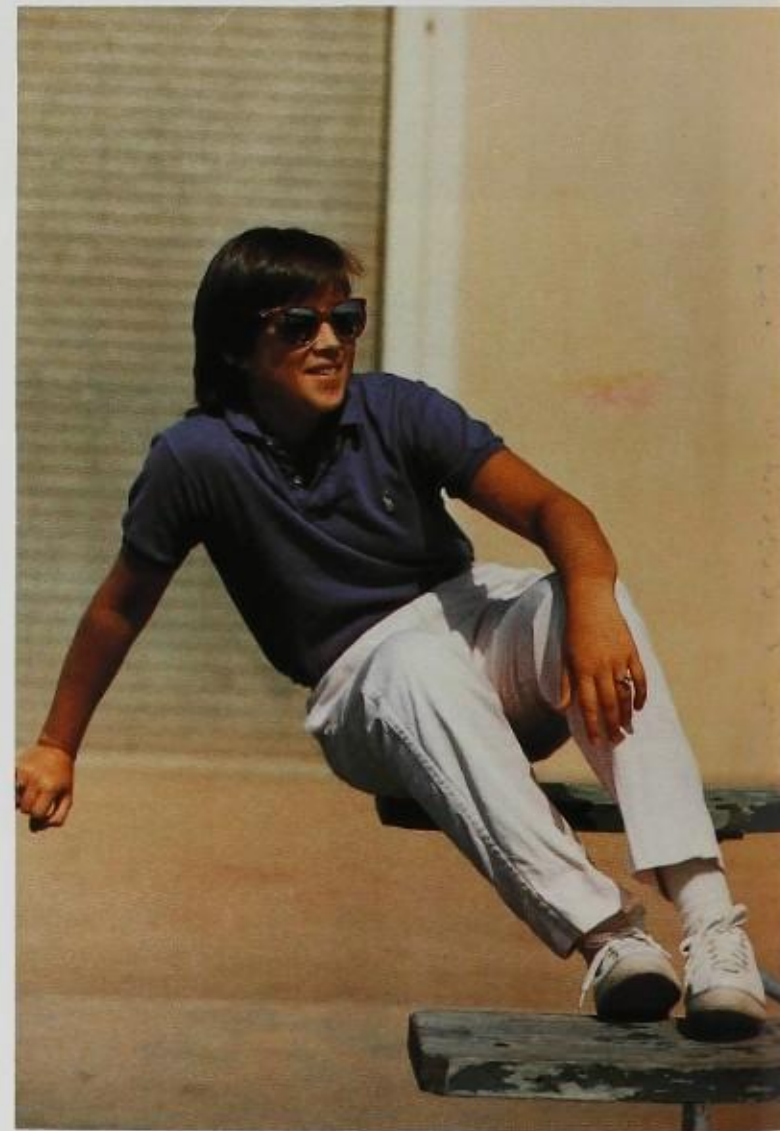

Fun gives you a forcible hug, and shakes laughter out of you, whether you will or no. -Garrick

All who would win joy must share it; happiness was born a twin.

-Byron

Male and female He created them.

Genesis 1:27

As the days fly past will we lose our grasp, or fuse it in the sun?

-Neil Young

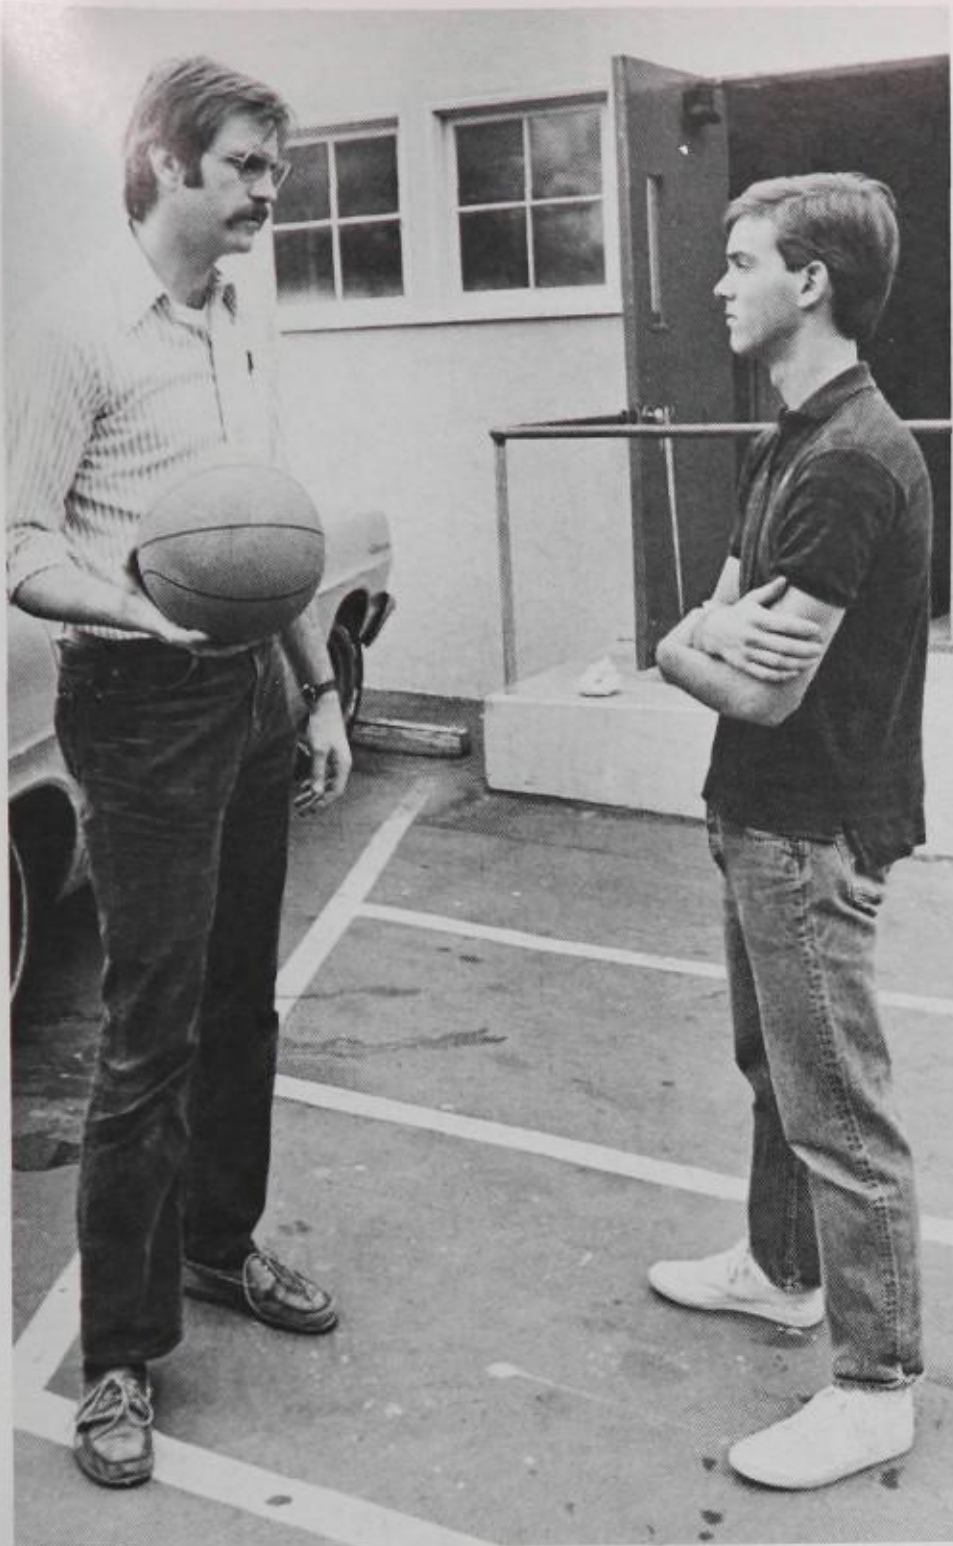

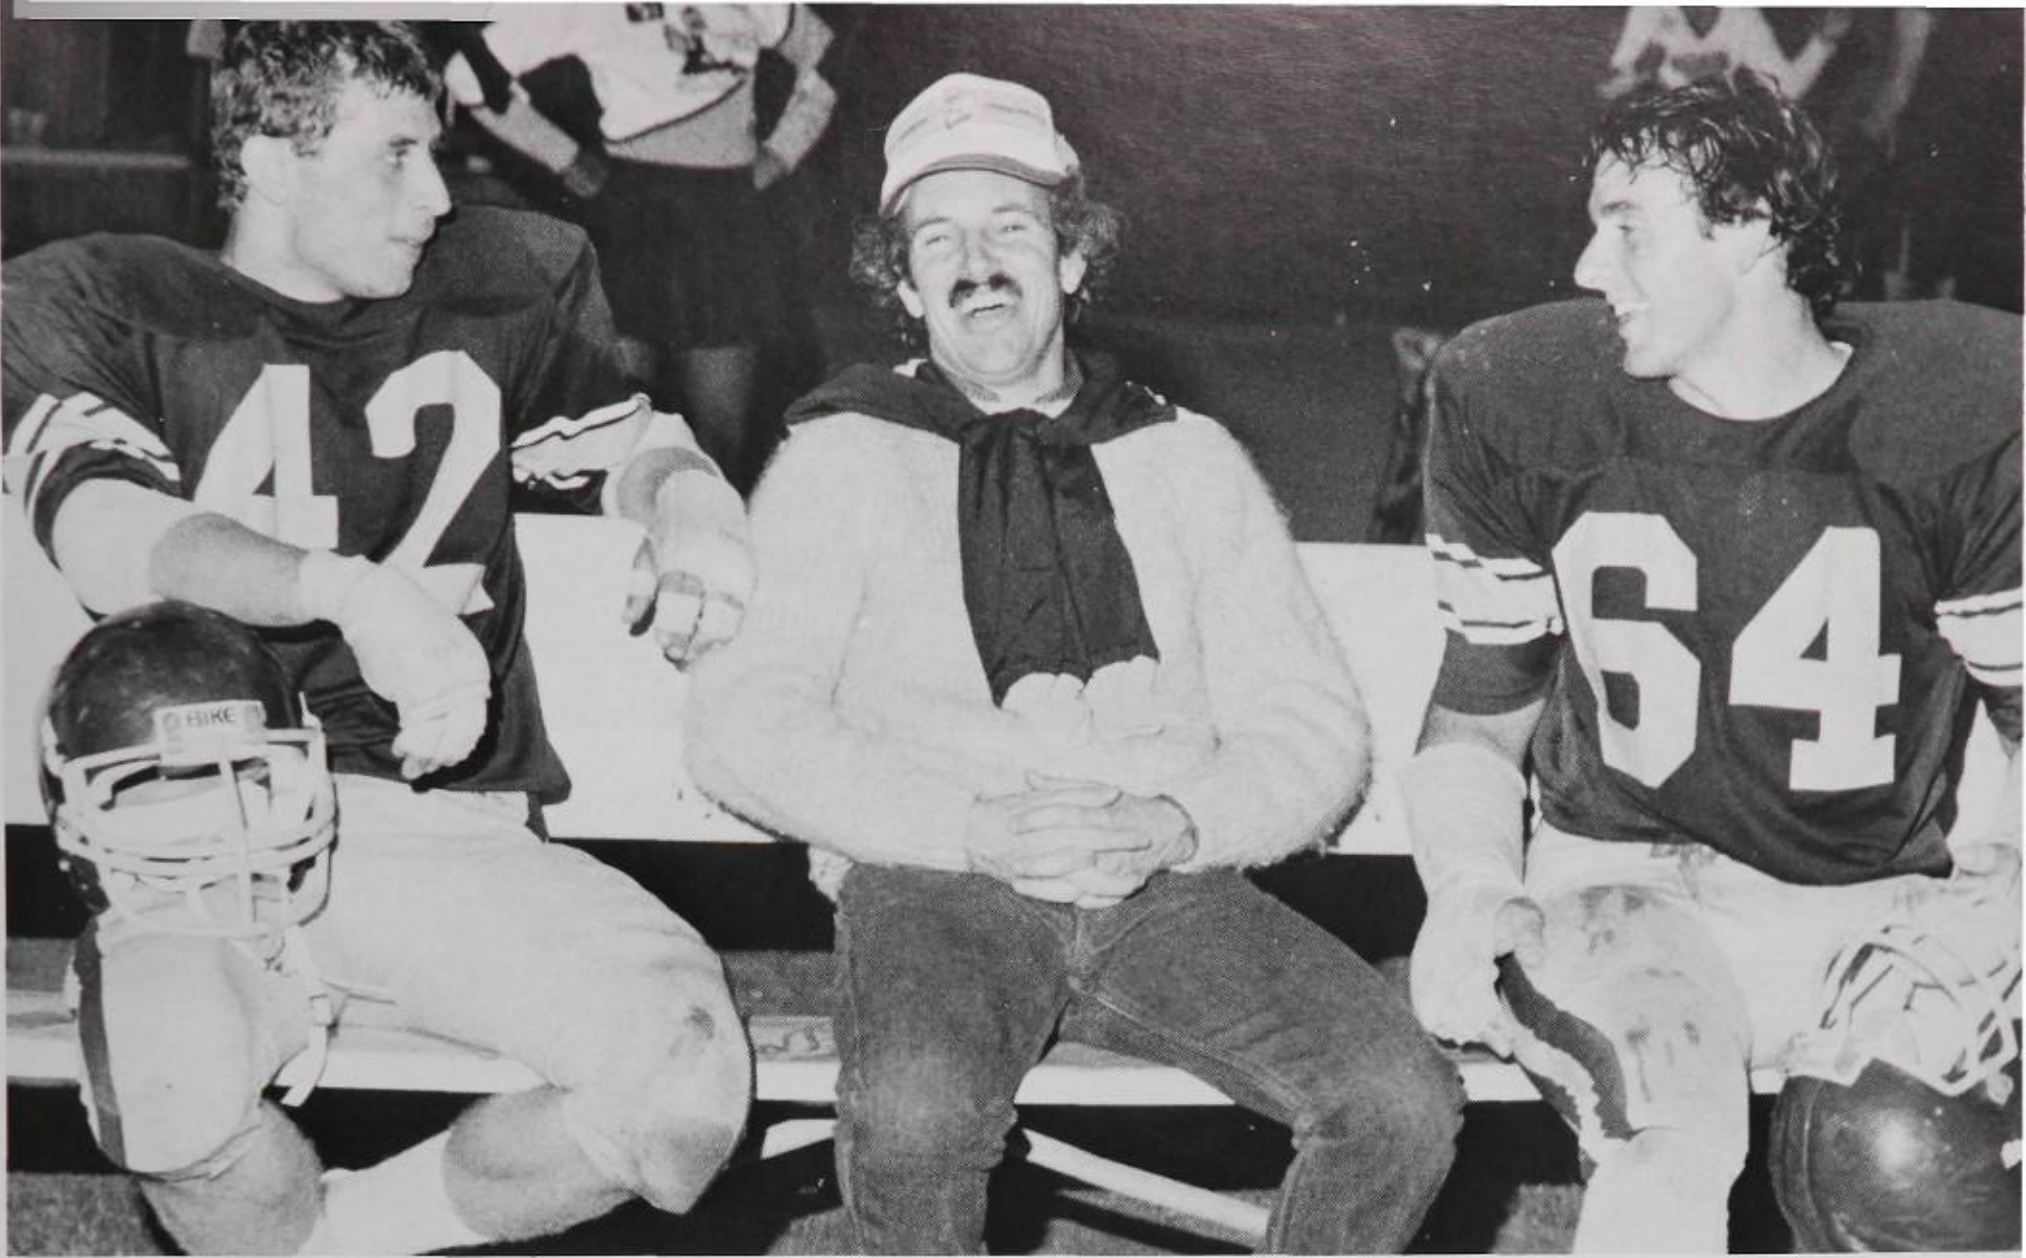

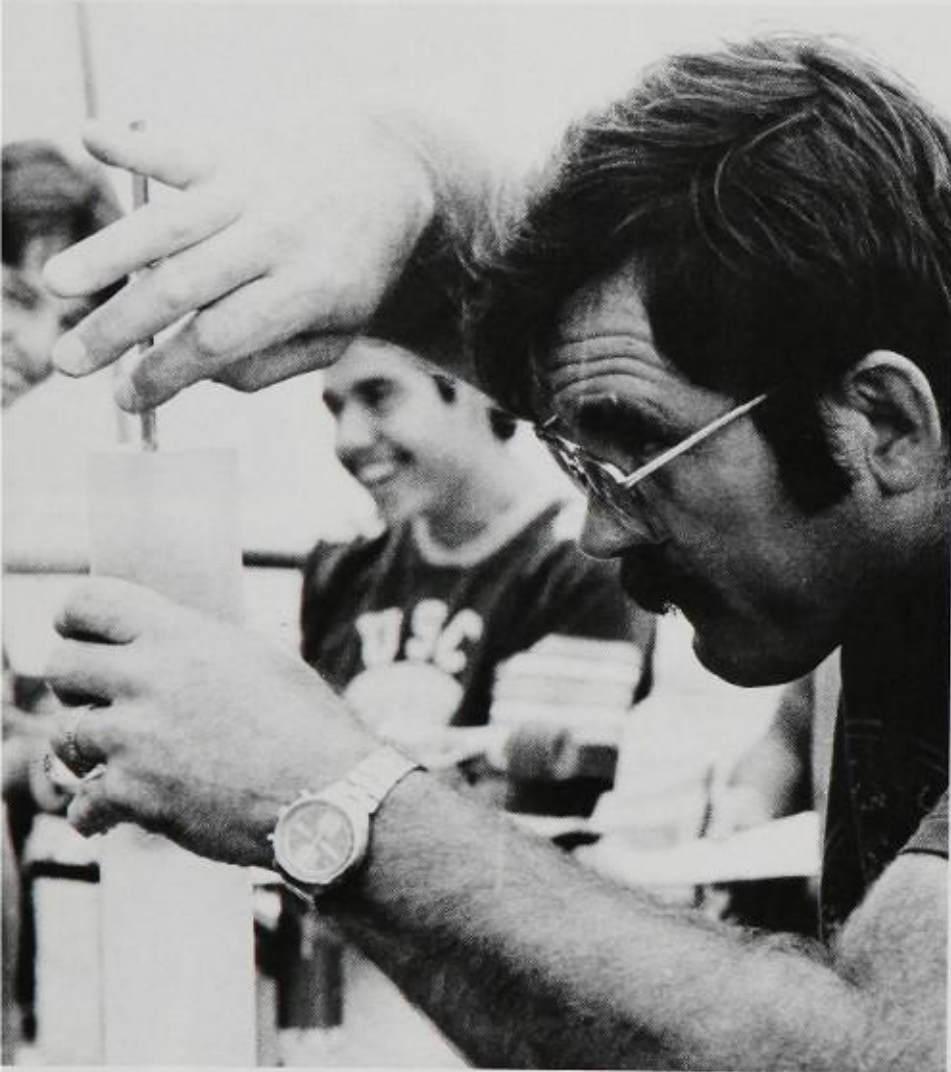

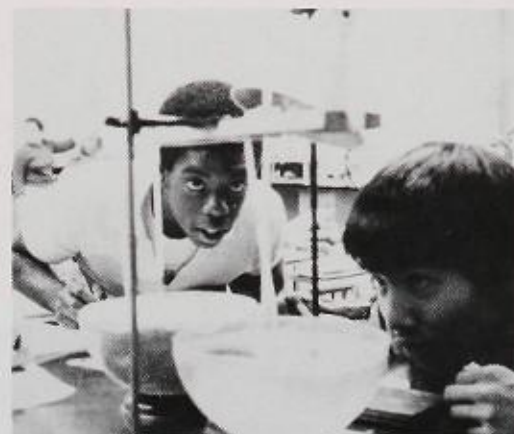

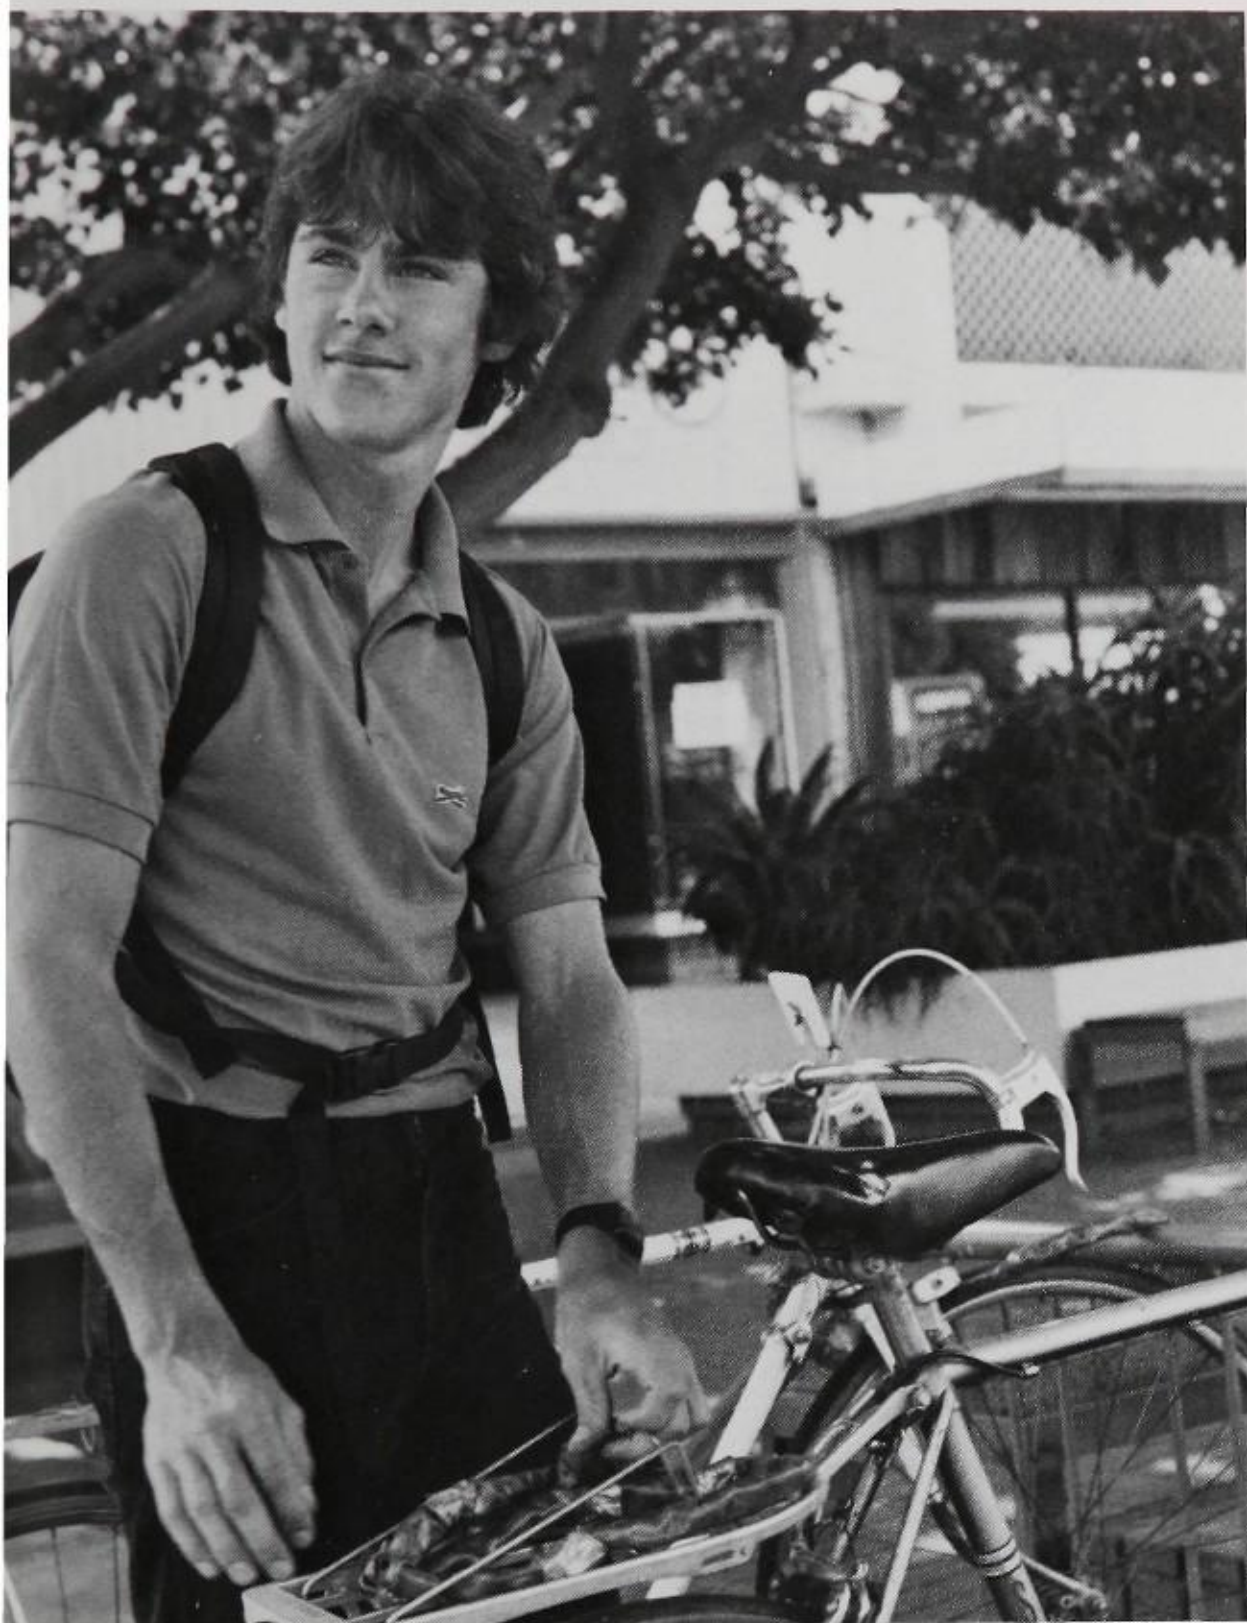

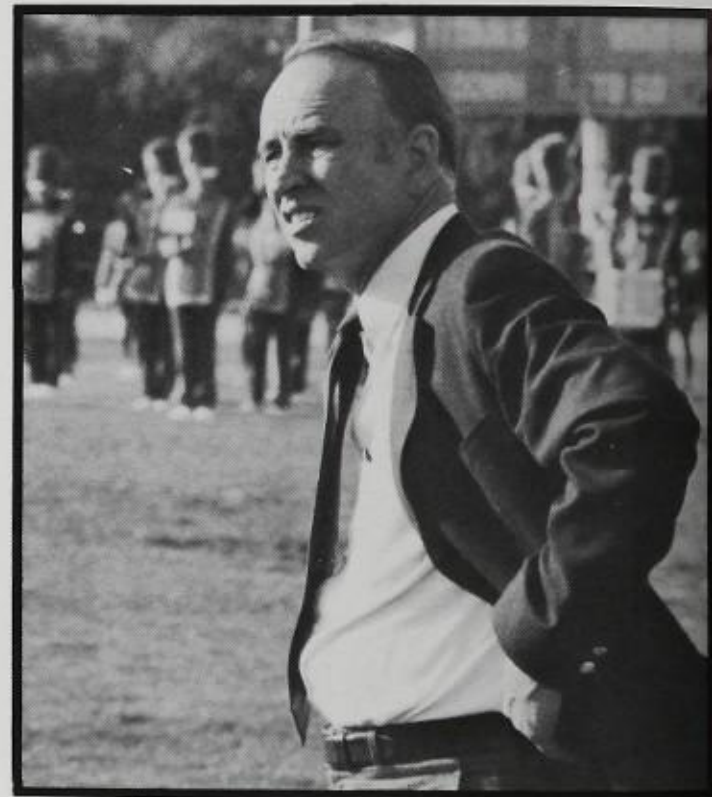

A. Einstein
I never worry about the future. It comes soon enough.

Art is much less important than life,
but what a poor life without it.

Igor Stravinski

As we end the year with spirits high
Let's not forget the SAMOHI
We made some errors here and there;
Misquotes and such, but let's be fair-

The newsroom life can be a bout Sometimes our Snickers bars run out So let's give redit, where credit's due To the folks who brought the news to you.

First there's Bill, what a guy
Editor of the SAMOHI Always willing to lend a hand
Lead singer in a hot rock band

Yvette Lee, Homecoming Queen Had to divide her time between Campaigning for ecology
And playing football viciously

Robert, awake and on the job
Sports editor and stud hearthrob
Ol' Robert never shaved his face

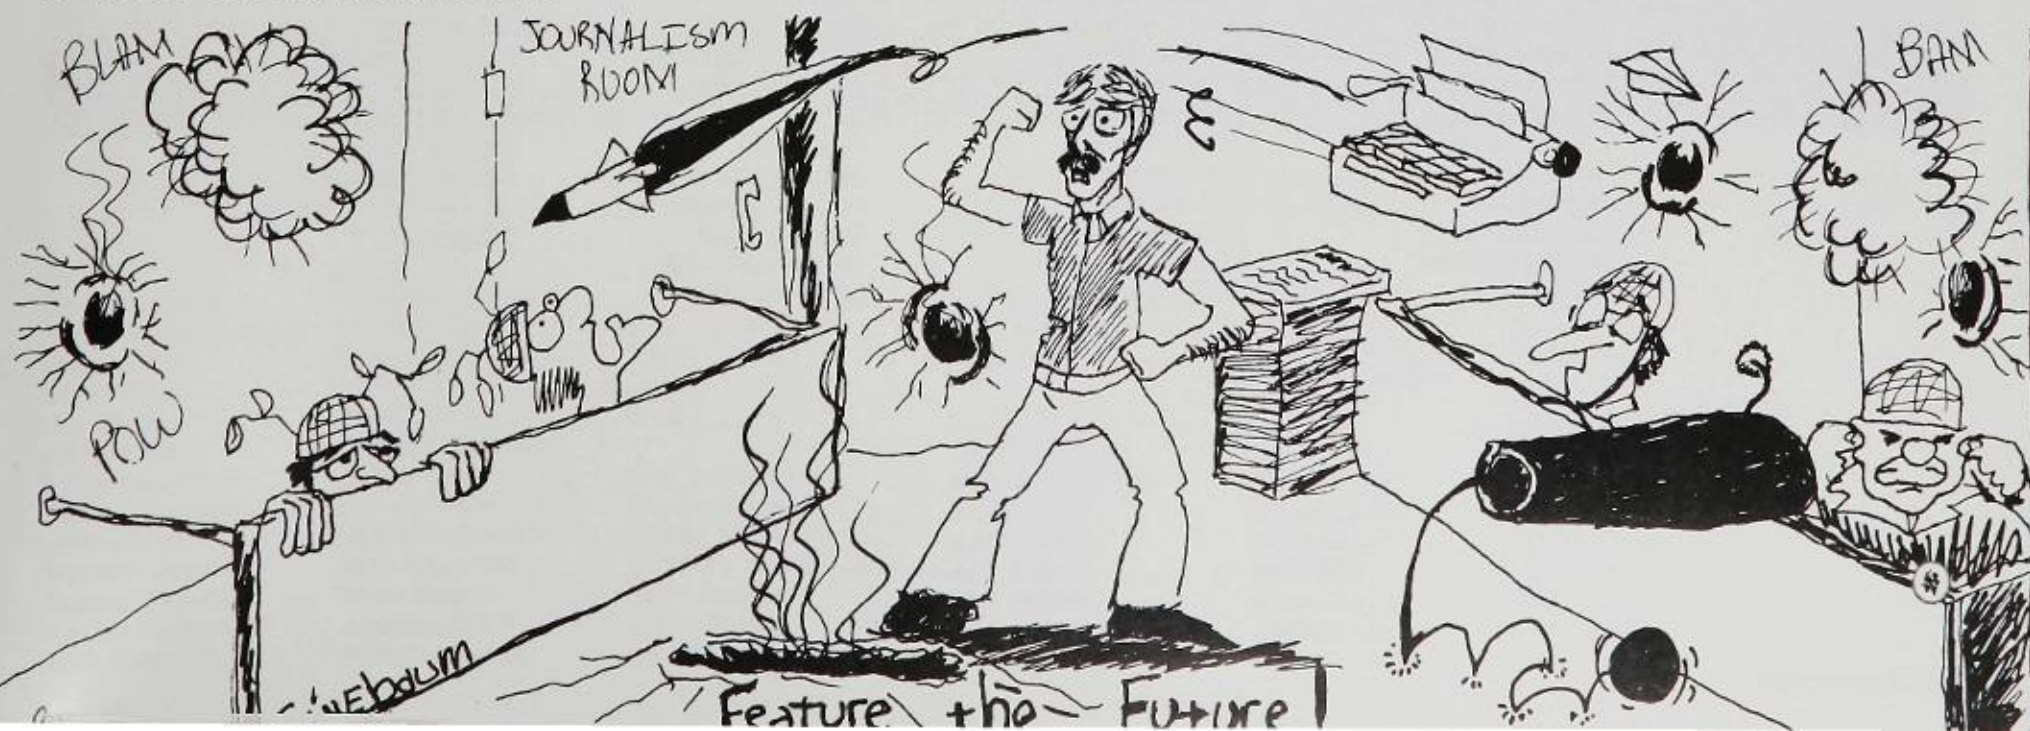

But at page design he was an ace.

Monica, the weekend queen
Once of twice in class was seen Yet despite her beatnik way of life
Did well amid the newsroom strife

Jim, a true newspaper man
Would leave it all to get a tan
Strong pages were his greatest asset
Next to his meticulous dressing facet

Mr. Sherwood, our renowned advisor
Each day made us a little wiser
A Harvard grad, still at heart
With his diction he'll never part

We had a staff that didn't quit
When there were stories they'd rarely sit
So in closing we'd like to say
Keep reading the SAMOHI while you don't have to pay

This year's Nautilus was largely a success due to the enthusiastic efforts of the whole staff. Although everyone was truly dedicated to the yearbook, a few people who were particularly helpful: Paul, who always pulled through with his photography; Diana Quarry with her creative designs; Leslie, Laurie, Bari, Lynda with all their hard work; and Sheila, Debbie, Julie, Bill, Kimi, Tomi, and Sharon for all their helpfulness. However, without the inspiration and confidence of our advisor, Mrs. Jago, we would have never reached our "destination" . . .
